

SUEZ CANAL GOAL OF TURKS

BRITISH CAPTURE GERMAN'S MAIN SECOND LINE TRENCHES

THIAUMONT IN FRENCH HANDS; ALSO CAPTURE PART OF FLEURY

London, August 5.—British positions near Romani, east of Port Said, are being attacked by 14,000 Turks, according to an official statement issued by the war office. The Turks are attacking along a front of seven to eight miles, the statement says, and have so far been repulsed.

The text of the British official announcement says:

"The following report timed 11:10 p. m. on the fourth of August has been received from the general office commanding in chief in Egypt:

"Since midnight of August 4-4 Turks whose strength is estimated at 14,000, have been attacking our position near Romani, east of Port Said, on a front of seven to eight miles.

"The position at dusk on the fourth of August was that their attacks had made no impression on our fortified position while on the southern flank the fighting was also going in our favor and between 400 and 500 prisoners had been captured there.

"Ships of the royal navy rendered valuable service from the Bay of Tinn.

"Fighting was still in progress when this report was dispatched. The temperature during the day reached 100 degrees in the shade.

An official statement issued by the Turkish war office on Friday stated that Turkish armies had attacked with machine guns, British positions about 25 miles east of the Suez canal.

Romani is a village near the coast of the Mediterranean about 22 miles to the east of the Suez canal. It is about 10 miles northwest of Katia, where several engagements recently have been fought between the British and the Turks.

SUEZ CANAL GOAL OF TURKS

London, August 5.—The Turkish attack on the British positions in Egypt east of the Suez canal was not unexpected. General Sir Archibald Murray who commands the British army there has long realized that the Turks with the assistance of the Austrians and German engineers for many months, have been digging for water, which close to the Mediterranean coast, exists in many cases at no considerable depth under the sand.

At Romani where fighting is in progress the Turks must bring up every drop of water from Aughratna, ten miles away. It is understood the Turks have with them 1,000 to 2,000 Austro-German infantry.

IMPORTANT GAIN BY BRITISH

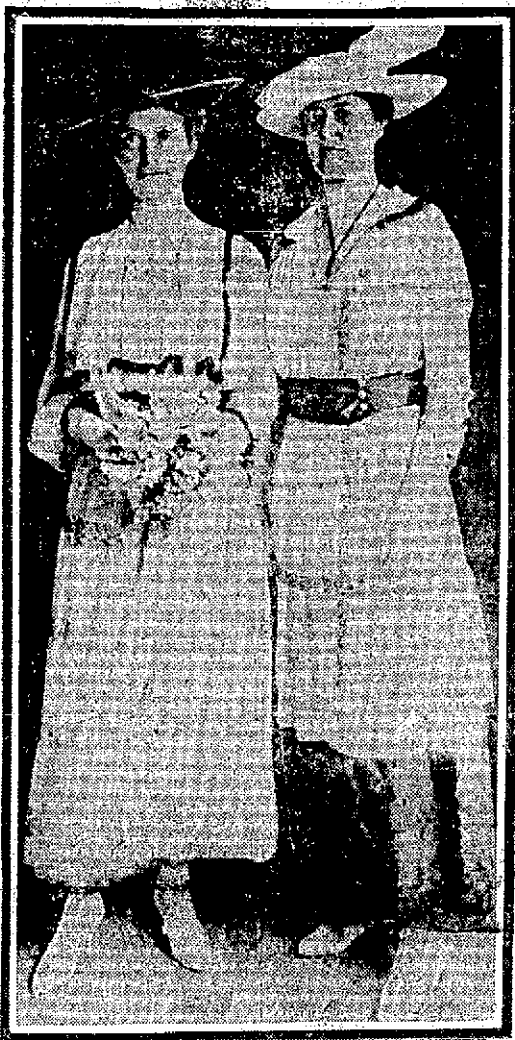

London, August 5.—The main German second line system on a front of 2,000 yards north of Pozieres, on the Somme front has been captured by the British, it was officially announced by the war office this afternoon.

Petrograd, August 5.—(Via London)—Russian troops have crossed the river Sereth, south of the town of Brody and in the region of Peniako-Tchistopady and have consolidated the captured positions, it was officially announced today by the Russian war department.

BANDITS ESCAPE WITH $34,000

Detroit, Michigan, August 5.—With no trace yet found of the five automobile bandits who yesterday robbed the paymaster of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company of a sum said to range from $33,000 to $34,000, the search at noon today had been extended to all points within a hundred mile radius of Detroit. Half a dozen reports that speeding automobiles of the make employed by the robbers had been seen in different localities, were run down by the police, always with the same result—a party of pleasure seekers.

One police theory is that the holdup was an "inside job." They say the fact that the robbery was carried out in daylight in a crowded street without a hitch, is evidence that the bandits must have had a confederate in the Burroughs plant. Officers of the company, however, repudiate such intimation.

Witnesses declare not more than two minutes elapsed after the first sharp demands of the highwaymen before they were speeding away clearing a path for their machine with rifle and pistol shots.

CAMPAIGNERS ARE ATTACKED

Marion, O., August 5.—As Congressman John A. Key, of Marion, with a party of Morrow, Marion and Hancock county boosters passed through Little Sandusky, ten miles north of here, last night, missiles were hurled and water was turned on their automobiles. BIG STRIKE CRIPPLES NEW YORK SERVICE

New York, August 5.—Although strikes were in effect today on nearly every surface car line in Manhattan, Queens and the Bronx, with between 2,000 and 2,500 matrons and conductors reported idle, professional strike breakers and loyal employees were in the places of the strikers and officials of the New York Railway Company and the New York and Queens county railways said at 10 a. m. that almost normal schedules were being maintained.

Police Commissioner Woods assigned a policeman to every car of these lines, and except for a few minor demonstrations, there was no disorder.

As the day wore on however it appeared that the strike was gaining headway. Inspector Schmidt Berger reported that many cases cars that had started from the barns in the early morning were withdrawn before the noon hour and at that time those on the New York Railway Company's lines had been reduced to 467. The strike, moreover threatened to spread to lines in Staten Island.

Senator Fall Says A Reply Would Dignify Remarks

Washington, D. C., August 5.—Senator Lewis, the Democratic whip, spoke in the senate today in reply to the attack upon the administration made by Charles E. Hughes, in his speech accepting the Republican presidential nomination.

Republican strictures upon the administration's Mexican policy, Senator Lewis denounced as "treasonable." He charged that the clause of the Republican platform repudiating interference in internal affairs of Mexico was responsible for the massacre of troops at Carrizal.

"Not until the captains of the Republican party shoot at the president of the United States did the Mexican outlaws shoot at the soldiers of the American president," he said. "The platform declaration, Senator Lewis characterized as a 'summons to Carrizal and Villa to revenge the entrance of American soldiers into Mexico and the interference of America in her internal affairs.'"

"G. O. P. CONVENTION SLEW SOLDIERS"
It was the Republican convention," said Mr. Lewis, "which slew the soldiers at Carrizal, and he assailed efforts of the Republican leaders to make Mexico the issue, without regard to facts, equity or justice."

"Revolt against the government at Washington as to Mexico—that is the issue," he declared.

"Denounce the president as to Mexico—for that is the issue. Make contemptible your own country before the world whenever you can—for that is the issue. Humiliate your own fellowmen by holding his country and his president up before the world as unworthy the support of his countrymen or the respect of foreigners."

"HUGHES' HEADS BLOOD TARNISHED VOTARIES"
"At last the army is summoned. The mercenary—the concessionaire, who pollutes the government in power to wrest the rights from the defenseless and the weak; the European bondholders demanding of the sovereign United States that she shall send her sons to die that their blood may give value to that whose creation was born of robbery and whose existence, is being maintained, by fraud; the mining buccannery of the mountains, the land pirates of the plains, suppressors of duty, murders of justice, come all of you, at last there is found for you a house in which you are worshipped."

"This procession of blood-tarnished votaries, is headed now by the newly anointed chief of this political hierarchy, the nominee of a Republican convention for president of the United States, Charles Evans Hughes."

SENATOR FALL MAKES BRIEF STATEMENT

Senator Fall, Republican, following Senator Lewis' speech, said:

"I have just listened to a most remarkable harangue, the like of which I never heard on the stump and which I never expected to hear in the halls of congress. To reply to it would be to dignify it," said he. "The senator belongs to that recent school of statesmen, developed during the last three or four years, who are preaching the doctrine that patriotism means servility and subservience to a party leader."

"The issue of the coming campaign," Senator Fall said, "would be the duty of a government to its citizens."

"Thousands of American fugitives from Mexico with wives and children outraged or killed, will confront the Democratic party with their failure to protect their own people," said he.

"You will later change your opinion that there is no issue involved in this Mexican question."

URGE PRESIDENT TO SUPPORT SUFFRAGE

Colorado Springs, Colo., August 5.—Officers of the National Woman's party as part of their present conference sent a telegram to President Wilson urging him to assist in behalf of universal suffrage. It says: "According to our platform National Woman Suffrage is decidedly the most important issue before the country and one unceasing opposition is pledged to all who oppose it. In the week that is left before our conference meets, you can still secure the submission of a national suffrage amendment by congress to the states."

"As the representatives of constantly increasing numbers of women voters throughout the suffrage states, who are prepared to place the political freedom of women before the interest of any national political party we earnestly ask you to secure the immediate submission of the Susan B. Anthony amendment."

Berlin, August 5.—(Wireless to Sayville)—A statement issued by the Austro-Hungarian headquarters under date of August 3, says the army of General Von Boehm-Ermoli repulsed attacks made by the Russians west of Brody and that attempts made by the enemy to advance along the railroad between Sarny and Kovel, and on the lower Stokhod also failed.

REIGN OF TERROR WAS PLANNED IN SAN FRANCISCO, CLAIMED

San Francisco, August 5.—That Thomas J. Mooney, one of the men indicted for murder in connection with the preparedness parade bomb explosion on July 22, planned to inaugurate a reign of terror in San Francisco by importing "direct action Reds" from other cities, was the declaration of District Attorney C. M. Eickert in making public today some of the correspondence discovered by the police in Mooney's desk.

Mooney kept carbon copies of his letters. One addressed to an executive officer named Acker, of the International Organization of the Industrial Workers of the World, Chicago, said:

"I want to get in immediate touch with fifteen or twenty direct action Reds—good, vigorous Reds."

A letter to William Haywood, national secretary to the I. W. W., asked for "hot blooded men" to come to San Francisco to join various unions and foment trouble, to start mutinies against the head of the unions they joined, and in every way possible to cause discussion.

"Let me pull any kind of stuff," this letter continued. "Stuff that's never been attempted in San Francisco before, and I'll make labor in San Francisco recognize me as its leader."

Kaltenbach Objects To Crawfish As Bedfellow; Alarms Neighborhood

John Kaltenbach, bartender at the St. John hotel bar, has not yet fully recovered from the scare attacks of the place caused him Thursday night. The "gang" headed by Uncle Abe Miller, veteran hostler of the hotel's feed and boarding stable, had imported a monster crawfish from Carey's Run. They anchored the "critter" in the very middle of Jack's bed. A fair-sized panic followed within a few minutes of Jack's disrobing act for once he discovered his bed was infested with some strange creature he let out unearthly yells that excited a goodly portion of Bonafiddle. He and Miller armed themselves with sticks to give battle to the intruder. Jack thought for a time that that Carey's Run monster rattlesnake had suddenly shifted its location to his bed. Once he discovered what it really was he threatened to get even with someone at the first opportunity.

TO IMPROVE MASSIE

The S. Monroe & Son company expect to begin active work Monday morning on the improvement of Massie street from Front to Second streets. This is one of Portsmouth's oldest streets, having been named after Henry Massie, founder of the city. The stone flagging in the streets has been sold to Contractor Henry Ruel, who expects to use it in filling behind the piling recently driven to protect the flood wall at Scioto Point.

Came Home In Auto

Mrs. August Maier, of Sixth street, returned home Friday afternoon from a visit in Norwood, coming in the touring car of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Payne, of that city. Sold Part Of Equipment

Contractor Henry Ruel has not disposed of his pile driving equipment as recently reported, he having only sold his gasoline boat Elk and two barges to McClintic & Marshall, contractors engaged on the C. and O. Northern bridge work. Mr. Ruel retained his entire pile driving outfit, boats and barges and expects to start up the Scioto river next week to do some extensive pile driving work at the Bannan and Jewett farms, the Will Feurt and J. M. Stockham places.

Complain Of Road To Wharf; Will Be Fixed

Considerable complaint is heard that the chunks of furnace slag with which the public service department is piling on the flood-wall roadways is hard on horses' feet and automobile tires. Some draymen even threaten to quit hauling to and from the wharfbout because of the slag, some chunks of which weigh 30 or 40 pounds, they say. Relief is promised by the city officials, however, with a top layer of finer slag with which the chunks will be covered. All will then be rolled. They are able only to secure the use of a roller for three days and wanted all of the slag distributed before commencing the rolling.

"Point" Defense Will Be Completed Soon

Contractor Henry Ruel has all of the concrete poured for the newly restored flood wall around Scioto Point and also has the curbing poured on the south side of Second street and also on Scioto street. He has commenced filling in behind the wall and hopes to have the entire improvement completed within another week.

LOCAL PEOPLE PASS QUARANTINE REGULATIONS AT NEW YORK CITY

Health Officer Dr. W. W. Smith received a card Saturday notifying him that Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Miller and two children who have been visiting in New York City were on their way to Portsmouth and had been examined and passed by Rupert Blue, secretary general of the United States, General Public Service.

This was the first article Dr. Smith has received since the infantile paralysis plague started in New York City. All persons enroute through New York City with children under 15 years of age have to fill out one of the cards and file it with the New York City authorities who forward the card to the health officer at the parties' destination. The card signifies that the party has passed an examination before leaving the city. The name of the adult or adults in charge, number of children under fifteen years of age, destination and address in place of destination are on the cards. Mr. Miller and children were among the first to leave New York City for the Peerless City since a quarantine was established.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and two children arrived home Saturday morning. They live at 1508 Jack, son street and have been visiting in Massachusetts and Connecticut. He is connected with the A. E. Miller Construction Co.

WONDERFUL TALES ARE RECALLED BY VERACIOUS JOE STOKLEY

Officer Joe Stokley is one person in the city who was not in the least surprised when he heard that Tom Hush fell from a third story window Thursday night without as much as cracking a single bone.

"Why old Tom hasn't any bones," remarked Stokley. "I remember some years ago a certain saloonkeeper, who has since passed out to the Great Beyond, worked out on Tom with a billiard cue. He swiped him four or five times across the head hard enough to kill any ordinary man but at each blow Tom simply shook his head and snorted."

Hush appeared on the streets of the West End Friday afternoon navigating with the aid of a cane. Hush's accident reminded Stokley of another remarkable story. Tom's brother, the late John Bush, one night shot a man through the mouth during the progress of a dance at the old White Bear hotel. The man smacked his lips, spit out the bullet and continued dancing to music without the slightest interference to his step.

SUFFRAGE LEADER GETS VIEWS OF MANY STATE CANDIDATES

Columbus, O., August 5.—Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, president of the Ohio Woman Suffrage Association has submitted a partial report of the canvass made by Ohio Suffragists for the purpose of learning how the candidates stand on the suffrage question.

According to this report, all save one of the candidates for governor had been interviewed and all expressed themselves in favor of suffrage. Former Governor Cox and A. P. Scales declared themselves as standing on the Democratic national platform, which is for suffrage by state vote. J. C. Marin, of Greenville, the third Democratic candidate has not submitted a reply, according to the report. Favorable expressions were given by Governor Willis, Adolph Mack and George A. Shaw the Republican candidates.

Among the candidates for lieutenant governor, Earl Bloom and E. J. Hoppie, of Cleveland, expressed themselves for suffrage, while George Tool, of Columbus, refused to commit himself because the Democratic state convention had not yet spoken on the subject. Lieut. Governor "Jack" Arnold and Abraham W. Agler both spoke for suffrage on the Republican side.

WANTS PRISONERS FREED; THREATEN TO CLOSE ALL INDUSTRIES

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 5.—Threats to close every industry in the United States unless the ten I. W. W. agitators in jail here are freed were made by Joseph Elton, an I. W. W. leader at a meeting of Duluth Socialists last night, when resolutions were adopted demanding that Governor Barquist bring about the removal of what the resolutions termed "gunmen" from the range strike zone. The Socialists went on record as favoring fusion with the I. W. W. and approving the strike plans of that organization.

Are Popular

The hitching posts, which the West End Improvement Association recommended that the administration install on the Market street esplanade, were certainly patronized Saturday. The abundance of farm wagons and buggies reminded one of old time Market street. "They're the biggest thing we ever got for the West End. I've been adventuring them for the past ten years," said Grocer J. J. Orlett in speaking of the posts.

Bob Williams, a Virginia negro, who came dangerously near burning to death at the government dam, below the city recently, was able to visit Portsmouth Saturday. Williams was swathed in bandages and it will be some time before he will be able to resume work. Williams was holding a lighted lantern when a fellow workman accidentally upset a can of gasoline upon him setting fire to him.

Decision Withheld In Paving Suit; Interesting Testimony Is Submitted

Judge Will P. Stephenson, West Union, stated Saturday morning that he would be unable to review the evidence adduced in the injunction suit, brought against the Board of Control and the S. Monroe and Sons Co. by James and Edward Kelley and Jay Thompson, to restrain them from improving Linden avenue by paving. "There are several close points in the case," said Judge Stephenson. "I will probably forward a decision about the middle of next week."

The arguments were completed Friday afternoon late and the case was submitted to Judge Stephenson.

Mayor Not Unfriendly To Contractors or Brick Men

Just before leaving the stand Mayor Kaps yesterday was asked the following questions:

"You have nothing personal against Kelley Bros. have you?"

"I have always been on good terms with all of the Kelley Bros. up until June 30th."

"Ever have any dealings with them?"

"I have had dealings with Kelley Brothers and in fact with nearly all of the contractors. I have done work for them and they have for me, loaned and borrowed tools, material, etc."

"Has not the Peebles Paving Brick Company treated you right?"

"They certainly have. I have bought brick from them, in fact only a few days ago purchased a large quantity from them for the new Hill Top church."

Mr. Kaps also explained during his testimony that he favored tar filler in paving, as against grout filler, because he had talked to almost all of the engineers of the city who had served during the past score of years, and found them unanimous in favor of the tar filler as compared with the other.

"Naturally," he said, "I sided with these men who should be the best qualified to judge."

"Portsmouth Block" Was Stumbling Point

Upon reconvening Friday afternoon, Attorney Will J. Meyer, representing the plaintiffs, introduced as evidence, the original abstract of the bidding sheet for awarding the contract for paving Linden avenue and several contracts purported to have been awarded to Monroe and Sons, Kelley Brothers and Kaps Brothers wherein the type of brick was not specified. The defense objected to the contracts claiming that they could produce a similar number that had been awarded to all three contractors wherein the brands had been named. The objection was overruled and the taking of testimony resumed.

"What were your reasons," asked Attorney Meyer, when Service Director Ralph Calvert took the stand, "for awarding Monroe and Sons Company the contract as the lowest and best bidder?"

"Well, for one thing they specified certain kind of brick and the property owners on Linden avenue were anxious to get the street paved before winter."

"Were there any other reasons?"

"Well it seems as if the opinion of the Board of Control was for a repress brick with tar filler."

"This contract was the first paving contract you folks had let, wasn't it?"

"Yes sir."

"Now, Mr. Calvert, you said at the board meeting that you were going to see Kelley Brothers and see if they would get Portsmouth Block. What was your purpose?"

"Well to see whether they could get the brick in time so it would not interfere with the work."

"Now, it all comes down to using Portsmouth Block, doesn't it?"

"Well, we know the Portsmouth Block is good."

"Why did you insist upon this particular brick?"

"Because we were informed that there were plenty of brick on hand."

"Who informed you?"

"I knew it. That knowledge came to me in various ways."

"Did you, at that time, make inquiries about the Union Block on hand, or the South Webster block or the Peebles block?"

"No sir."

"Where did you get the idea that tar was the best filler to be used?"

"Well the city has several streets paved with tar filler."

"You thought if Kelley Bros. used Portsmouth Block, you would give them the contract?"

"We gave Kelley Brothers the first consideration as they were the lowest bidders."

Mr. Clinkenbeard Explains Decision

E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, director of public safety, was the next witness called to the stand.

"What were your reasons, Mr. Clinkenbeard," asked Attorney Meyer after qualifying the witness, "for calling the S. Monroe and Sons Company the lowest and best bidders?"

"I will say again as in my deposition, that I got my impression, which was the better in a conversation with the city engineer. He said the wire cut log brick, which was a good one, was not adapted to tar filler and that repressed brick was adapted, and for this reason, I voted for the repressed brick with tar filler."

"Were there any other Portsmouth firms at the time in a condition to furnish repressed brick?" questioned Attorney Miller on cross examination.

"At a meeting called previous to the meeting of the board at which the contract was awarded, this was all threshed out and it was understood from the information that the other brick concerns could not take care of the order."

"They wouldn't have to go out of the city to get the brick would they?" asked Attorney Meyer.

"Unless they bought Portsmouth repressed brick, they would."

"What investigations did you make to see that the report was true?"

"No more than if I had come to you for the information. My regard for your veracity is sufficient."

Had Plenty of Union Block

C. W. Turner, proprietor of the Sciotoville Brick company, manufacturers of the Union Block, testified that his concern had 450,000 first class brick on hand about the time the contract was awarded and several hundred thousand others in the kilns.

"How many brick are used in a square yard?"

"About forty."

"Then in 1905 square yards, how many brick would be required?"

"About 72,000."

"Has your brick ever been used in paving streets in Portsmouth?"

"Oh, yes, for the last twenty years off and on."

"Did they come up to Portsmouth specifications?"

"Yes, sir, the first street we put down was Market street."

"How many brick did you say you had on hand about this time?" asked Attorney Skelton on cross examination.

"About 450,000."

"What grade were they?"

"Number one."

Says Mayor Put Ban On Peebles Brick

"I will ask you," questioned Attorney Meyer, when Carl Schneider took the stand, "whether you ever had a conversation with Mayor Kaps in which reference was made to Kelley Brothers or the Peebles Brick company?"

"Yes, sir."

"Tell the court where?"

"At the Red Cross drug store."

"What time of the year was this? What season?"

"It was right after the election about ten o'clock one night."

"State to the court what this conversation was."

Attorneys for the defense objected to this, claiming that it was an attempt to show fraud on the part of the mayor when it was not specifically set forth in the petition. Judge Stephenson granted the attorneys for the plaintiffs the right to amend their petition and allowed the question to be answered.

"Well he says that Kelley Brothers had pulled it over on other administrations and he went to New Boston and pulled it over on that administration and that the Peebles company would put no brick in Portsmouth if he had anything to do with it."

"Did he make any reference to any other administrations?"

"Yes, to Peck's, Tynes' and Seary's."

"There wasn't the best of feeling between you and Mayor Kaps then were there?" asked Attorney Skelton on cross examination.

"I don't know."

"Isn't it a fact that Kaps had called you to account for a statement you had made against him?"

"When?"

"During the campaign last fall."

"Isn't it a fact that Kaps discharged you at Oak Hill?"

"No, sir, he didn't."

"There was the best of feeling between you then?"

"Well I was a McCormick man in the primary and Kaps got a little offended at that."

"Why you have expressed your ill will against him to me."

"I don't recall it. I have said that Kaps had it in for me."

"Who was present at the Red Cross drug store when this conversation took place?"

"I don't remember."

"Now, how do you happen to recall the conversation?"

"Because it was in my line of business."

"Do you suppose that Mr. Kaps would tell you such things when he knew you were working for Kelley Brothers?"

"I suppose he told me that for my benefit and wanted Kelley Brothers to know about it. And I told Mr. Kelley the next day."

"Why is it you remember the conversation but do not remember who was about?"

"Never thought it was important or I would have put it down in a memorandum. I didn't think it would come to anything."

William Tipton testified that he was employed by the Curtis-Shumway company but had been in the employ of Kaps Brothers for several years.

Win. Tipton Testifies

"I will ask you," questioned Attorney Meyer, "whether you at any time ever had a conversation with Mr. Kaps in which he said anything about Kelley Brothers or the Peebles Brick company?"

"I heard him say just at election time that Kelley Brothers would have to do the work down here like he had to do it under other administrations. Never heard him say anything about Peebles."

"Didn't you tell me the other night that Kaps told you that Kelley Brothers were not going to get any more wire cut log brick in Portsmouth if you could help it?"

"No, sir."

At the close of Tipton's testimony, Attorney Meyer stated that they rested and introduced a copy of the Daily Times containing an article relative to the awarding of the contract, as evidence.

E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, safety director, was the first witness called by the defense.

Says Mayor Did Not Exert Influence

"I will ask you if any pressure was brought to bear by any statement made by Mayor H. H. Kaps that would tend to influence you in the award of the contract to Kelley Brothers?" asked Attorney Skelton.

"He did not."

"Did you ever hear him make any statements implying malice against Kelley Brothers?"

"It was not until the day after the contract was awarded."

"Were there any malicious statements made outside against Kelley Brothers?"

"No sir. Nothing that could be construed as malice."

"Were there any statements made that would imply malice against the Peebles company?"

"No, sir."

"You said that nothing was said that could be construed as malice. What do you mean?"

Told Me He Had A "He-Case"

"I have only to say that after I met you and Mr. Kelley, the morning of the awarding of the contract, he told me he had a what he called a 'he-case' with him, and said he had a run in with Kelley."

"At the time of the letting of the contract," Ralph Calvert was asked by Attorney Skelton, "did Mayor Kaps make any statements that would imply malice toward Kelley Brothers?"

"The only thing that Mr. Kaps said was that wire cut log brick were good enough but were not adapted to tar filler."

Samuel Herper was next called. "State the substance of the conversation with the things expressed to Clinkenbeard on being questioned."

Tells About Conversation

"I recollect Mr. Clinkenbeard stopped me, rather I met him in front of the city building and he told me that the contract was to be awarded that morning and asked me what sort of streets were the best. I told him that repressed brick with tar filler made the most satisfactory streets."

"Was that the substance of the conversation?"

"Yes, sir."

"This petition that was introduced by the property owners," asked Attorney Miller, "I wish you would explain that to the court?"

"When I went into the office of city engineer last fall there was a petition in to pave Linden avenue and it had been advertised for a 30 foot street. All the bids were rejected after the filing of another petition from the property owners asking for a forty foot street. It was re-advertised and then the property owners conceded to return to the original 30 foot street and I sent in an estimate and it was re-advertised."

The defense closed. No rebuttals were made.

Suit On Notes

Henry T. Hatten filed suit against Henderson W. Snyder and William Meanach, Saturday, in the court of common pleas asking foreclosure on a contract alleged executed in favor of George W. and Mary E. Harris, Feb. 3, 1913. The petition says that George W. Harris and wife sold a 40 acre tract of real estate located in Clay township to the defendants in February, 1913, and a portion of the consideration was given in promissory notes. A clause was said to have been inserted in the contract that ejected the buyers from possession should they fail to meet their obligations.

The notes were transferred to H. T. Hatten who avers that the several notes are past due and asks possession of the property. Attorney E. J. Daehler and Frank W. Moulton represent the plaintiff.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF SCIOTO COUNTY:

As all my friends know, I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Auditor of State in the Primary of next Tuesday. The work of the Auditor of State calls for special training, special experience, special preparedness. Fortunately, my life work has been in the line of preparing me for the intricate and responsible details of the duties of this important office. For example:

Experience in the office of the Auditor of Scioto County.

Experience as State Examiner of County officers.

Experience in the Auditor of State's office in charge of city, village, school and township affairs for fourteen years.

These things have in reality trained and educated me for practically all the duties of the office.

Again, if the Republicans of the great party strongholds in Southern Ohio are to have any recognition on the state ticket this fall, it must be by my nomination. Southern Ohio has not been having the recognition of late years that its party loyalty, service, and great Republican majorities entitle it to.

My old friends in Scioto county will be glad to know that it is the opinion of the best political observers that every prospect now points to my nomination. Should I be nominated, it is needless to say that I shall give the work the most capable, industrious and conscientious service in my power.

I regret the work incumbent on a candidate for state office is such as to make it impossible to visit all counties. I would be most pleased to meet my old friends in a personal canvass but that is impossible. I find it necessary to give my time to other sections of the State where I am not so well known and will thus deny myself the pleasure of meeting my friends in the primary campaign, but hope to do so later.

The Republicans of Scioto county have always been more than generous and kindly in their support of me and in this, the most important political event in my life, I turn with both sanguine expectation and deep gratitude to my old home county. A vote of confidence thus expressed for me in the Primary from my old friends and neighbors will be appreciated more than even the nomination itself.

It was in Scioto County that I was born and raised. Through the kind favor of its people I have been given opportunity for important public service, and so I have always kept my residence among you.

I thus appeal in confidence to all my friends that they turn out to the Primary without fail in my interest and I assure them that I will appreciate with the deepest gratitude the support which I feel they will give to me.

Gratefully yours,
JOSEPH T. TRACY.

Bad Weather Prevented Good Roads Meeting

The good roads meeting to have been held at Edmunds Switch near Scioto Furnace Thursday afternoon was postponed on account of bad weather. The South Webster brass band and speakers Samuel and John Haynes and J. W. Mossburger were to be present. A splendid meeting was held Wednesday at Pinkerman. The meetings are being held by the Eastern Scioto County Good Roads Association recently organized at South Webster, to work for the improvement of roads in the eastern part of the county. Like meetings will be held for several months in different townships.

RAISING MONEY TO SEND INJURED MAN TO SURGEON

Petitions are being circulated in the East End for funds that will be made up to send W. F. Wingfield, Gallia street confectioner, to the famous Mayo Bros' hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, where he will undergo a surgical operation. Mr. Wingfield has been crippled for a number of years on account of injuries sustained to his back when the railroad engine in which he was riding turned over, catching him under the wreckage. The business men and railroad men of the East End are responding nicely. O. A. Smith will give a benefit show for Wingfield within the next two weeks.

W. M. HENDRIXSON.

STIVERS FOR CONGRESS

(From the News Democrat, Leading Democratic Newspaper in 6th District)

Elsewhere will be found the formal announcement of Hon. E. B. Stivers as a Democratic nominee for congress in the Sixth Congressional District. Mr. Stivers is at present representing this county in the Legislature. He has been the Senator from this District, and being engaged in the practice of law, with the people of this and adjoining counties, he has a most intimate acquaintance. That he has the ability to represent the district ably, goes without question. That he has a host of friends who will give him earnest and loyal support is certain.

A TRIBUTE FROM LABOR

Hon. E. B. Stivers.
My Dear Sir:—Through Columbus Lodge, No. 175, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, on this, the last day of legislative session of the 73rd General Assembly of Ohio, I wish to thank you very sincerely and earnestly for the noble fight you made in the interest of labor.
It will at all times be pleasant for me to inform all who are identified with labor that they have a true and faithful friend in you.
Being a workman myself, and in close touch with labor and its interests, I know whereof I speak. Through the channels of the labor Press and Labor Unions, I shall feel it my duty to say that labor has a warm friend in you.
All legislation advancing the interests of the workman has had your loyal support. Your championship of so worthy a cause is bound to meet with the gratitude of all honest, upright workmen.

Yours very truly,

JAMES McCABE,

Chairman Legislative Committee.

Substantially same endorsement from W. J. WINANS, Legislative Committee 59th General Assembly of Ohio.

THINKING DEMOCRATS

Who desire party success because of their faith in party principles, should ponder well the fact, that the 6th Ohio Congressional District, composed of the counties of Adams, Brown, Clermont, Highland, Pike and Scioto, under normal conditions, is more than 1,000 Republican, without the big Democratic majority of Brown county. A Brown county candidate with the faith of the people in his integrity and ability to represent their interests in Congress, broken of him, can get out Brown county's old time Democratic majority of from 12,000 to 15,000, and thus insure the election of a Democrat in the 6th District.

IF YOU DON'T VOTE, YOU DON'T COUNT

Go to the polls, Tuesday, August 8, 1916, call for a Democratic ticket. Mark it thus:

Ever get out behind the barn and hurl horseshoes at a peg? And did you ever enjoy the chagrin of your competitor when you made a "ringer" at a critical point in the game? There is going to be one of the good old-fashioned horseshoe pitching contests given at the Lucasville Fair this year, and prizes are to be awarded to the winner.

The winner will be declared champion of Scioto county and he is then eligible for the state championship contest

ANXIOUS HOUSE-KEEPER.
Roaches are usually found around sinks or other damp places, but they cannot last long without food. Keep every particle of food out of your pantry for awhile, or else keep it covered so Mr. Roach can't get a smelt of it and he'll soon move on to where he can satisfy his appetite. There are lots of remedies for ened fresh fruit, macaroon crumbs or bisque ice cream, strawberry marmalade, preserved ginger, mashed cantaloupe or bananas, pounded nut meats, melted chocolate or 1 cup of maple syrup and 1 pint of whipped cream.

Dear Miss Wise—is eight hours sleep enough for a child, say nine or ten years of age?

ANXIOUS MOTHER.
No; a child that age should be sleeping 12 hours every night. An adult can get along with eight hours sleep, but a growing child must have more.

Dear Miss Wise—Some time ago a reader asked for a way to can green peas. Here is a good way: Fill jars with small, tender peas, then add enough boiling water to fill jars to overflowing. Place in boiler and steam for an hour. Before preparing for the table, pour the water off.

Old Fashion—If she does as you say she hasn't any reputation left to ruin. If I were you I would not have anything more to do with her unless, of course, you can prevail upon her to change her way. Why not tell the people she stays with, or her mother, if she has one, what you have told me. Be careful, though, or you may get into trouble if you are just imagining these things. It's a terrible thing to ruin a girl's reputation.

Shoulders Dislocated

Two local men had their left shoulders dislocated in being thrown from their bicycles. Ralph D. Cornuelle of Second street and J. E. Thompson of Sciotoville were the unlucky parties.

Mr. Cornuelle is unfortunate. Ralph D. Cornuelle, assistant to Rev. George P. Horst of the Second Presbyterian church, had his shoulder dislocated about six o'clock Saturday morning. Mr. Cornuelle had prepared the weekly church notice and had mounted his bicycle to bring it to the Times office. He had a bundle under one arm and just as he started the coaster brake on the wheel "went wrong" causing him to fall to the ground, his left shoulder being dislocated when he hit the street. Dr. W. A. Quinn attended Mr. Cornuelle who will be at the church as usual Sunday.

Also has mishap. J. E. Thompson, well known printer of Sciotoville, had his left shoulder dislocated about six o'clock Friday evening but did not realize the seriousness of the injury until he went to a physician Saturday morning.

Thompson was on his way home on a bicycle and at Star Yard on Gallia pike an automobile crowded him to one side of the pike, his bicycle hitting the curb and throwing him to the ground. Friday night he could not move his arm but thought it was caused by soreness, the arm being lacerated and bruised. Saturday morning he went to the office of Dr. A. D. Mills in New Boston who found the shoulder dislocated, it being a backward and upward dislocation.

WAR

London, August 5.—Renewing their powerful attack along the Somme front, in Northern France, the British have captured the main second line defensive system of the Germans along a front of more than a mile north of Pozieres, the British war office announces today.

The advance claimed by the British is on that part of the line where their gains in the offensive movement so far had been less pronounced than elsewhere along this front. The gain, if maintained, will effect a material straightening out of the line in the sector between Pozieres and Thiepval.

At Verdun the French offensive is successfully withstanding German counter attacks, Paris declares. The important Thiaumont work, which has changed hands several times, is now firmly in French possession according to the official bulletin. The battle for this work lasted from early last night until this morning. In the village of Fleury, three miles north of Verdun, the battle is still raging. Last night the French reported they had succeeded in recapturing the greater part of the village and today they announce that the night's fighting resulted in no appreciable change.

On the eastern front, the Russians are continuing their drive at Kovel and Lemberg. Stubbornly resisted by General Von Linsingen on the Stokhod before Kovel where they are fighting to break through at a point less than twenty miles from this important railroad center they are having more successes in Northern Galicia. Petrograd today reports that south of Brody, in the direction of Lemberg, the Russians have crossed the Sereth river, and established themselves in their new positions.

RUSSIANS FORCED BACK, SAYS BERLIN

Berlin, (Via London)—August 5.—Russian detachments which penetrated the German positions across the river Sereth near Ratseye were forced to retreat, it was officially announced in the statement given out today by the German army headquarters. Near Meidrygory and Tolstopyady, the statement adds, the Russians are making a stand on the southern bank of the river.

On the Somme front in Northern France a continuation of the engagements with the British is reported, a new battle developing today near Pozieres after the British had been repulsed in fighting along a wide front from the north of Ovillers to Fourcraux wood. The statement says 468 prisoners were captured during the counter attacks yesterday in the Fleury sector.

Paris, August 5.—All German attacks on the French positions last night were repulsed, says the French official statement issued this afternoon, the Germans sustaining heavy losses.

A bombardment of the most violent character took place over the entire sector of Thiaumont and Fleury. The battle lasted from nine o'clock last night until this morning, the Germans making unsuccessful efforts, the statement adds, to drive the French from Thiaumont works.

After a spirited engagement in the village of Fleury, the situation is without appreciable change. The situation in the region of the river Somme is quiet. Four German aeroplanes were brought down by the French on Friday.

The statement says concerning the fighting at Thiaumont and Fleury:

"On the right bank of the Meuse the cannonading last night was violent on the entire sector between Thiaumont and Fleury. The Germans endeavored by furious counter-attacks to drive us from the work of Thiaumont which we hold firmly. This fighting lasted from 9 o'clock last night till this morning. It resulted in heavy losses to the enemy and each one of their endeavors was repulsed without their being able to obtain the slightest advantage.

"The fighting continued with equal spirit in the village of Fleury but it resulted in no appreciable change in the situation."

RUSSIANS EVACUATE VILLAGE

Petrograd, August 5.—(Via London)—Under the pressure of repeated German counter attacks against the village of Rudka-Miryanskain, on the Stovok nineteen miles from Kovel, the Russians have evacuated the village and retired several hundred yards to the east, says the official statement given out by the war office last night.

South of Brody, General Sakharoff's troops have captured 1,300 prisoners.

CAPTURE THIAUMONT TWICE

Paris, Aug. 5.—The French troops in the region of Verdun twice during Friday captured the Thiaumont work from the Germans, holding it the last time in the face of counter-attacks, according to the French official statement last night.

FRENCH HOLD PART OF FLEURY

Paris, Aug. 5.—After having captured and then evacuated the village of Fleury the French troops Friday afternoon in a bayonet attack recaptured the greater part of the village, says the French official statement issued last night.

Allies Report More Gains

London, August 5.—Verdun, almost quiescent during the Anglo-French offensive in the Somme region, has again become the storm center on the western battle front. The French forces

FEAR CHILD PLAGUE IN PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5.—Stringent measures were taken today to prevent infantile paralysis from becoming an epidemic in this state. State and city officials were prepared to rigidly enforce the quarantine against children under 16 years entering the state from New York or New Jersey.

Extra inspectors were placed upon all railroad trains and children in automobile or other vehicles will be closely examined before being allowed to cross the state line. The railroads have been asked to discontinue the sale of return tickets for children under 16 to any of the infested points in New York and New Jersey and the sale of excursion tickets for children to any point in the two states was ordered stopped.

One death and six new cases of the disease were reported in the city for the 24 hour period ending last midnight. This makes a total of ten deaths and sixty cases since July 1.

The Thiaumont work, already the scene of many desperate combats, was twice in French hands during 12 hours on Friday. The forces of the German crown prince fought tenaciously, driving the French from the work once, but losing it again. German counter attacks were of no avail, says Paris, and the work remained in the possession of the French.

French Take Fleury
Fleury, which changed hands Thursday after the French had succeeded in taking it, is again almost entirely occupied by the French. Fleury fighting still continues in and around the village. German unwounded prisoners taken in the Verdun fighting number 400.

On the Somme front, in Northern France, there has been little infantry activity, both the British and French communications failing to report on the part of their armies. London says the Germans bombarded the section southwest of Pozieres and also the southern portion of the Metz wood.

Desperate counter attacks by the Germans in the region of the Stokhod river, east of Kovel, have resulted in the retirement of the Russian forces which had seized the village of Rudka-Miryanskai. The fact that the village is only 19 miles from Vevol, the Russian objective on this part of the Roly-Inian front, probably accounts for the intensity of the fighting there.

Russians Advancing
The Russian General Sakharoff's troops continue to advance south of Brody and toward Lemberg. Petrograd reports the capture of 1,300 Austro-Germans in the "hot attack" on the line of the Sereth and Gracovki rivers.

A squadron of British naval aeroplanes has attacked with bombs German military establishments in the vicinity of Ghent, Belgium. The British war office says considerable damage was done by the dropping of two tons of bombs. Unofficial reports received in Amsterdam apparently confirm this claim.

Birmingham, Ala., August 5.—Warrants for the arrest of Voter J. Hanson, publisher of the Birmingham News, and E. W. Barrett editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald, were sworn out before the city recorder today by Arlie Barber, commissioner of public safety, who alleged he had reason to believe that the men intended to fight a duel.

The warrants are the outcome of a controversy between the two papers, culminating in the publication of a card in yesterday morning's Age-Herald signed by W. H. Jeffries, business manager, which Mr. Hanson claimed reflected on his business honor.

Scioto County Is Rallying To Daugherty, Says Gustin

"We find that the Republicans of Scioto county are now flocking to the support of Harry M. Daugherty for various reasons," said D. Willard Gustin, secretary of the Daugherty Campaign club of Scioto county Saturday morning.

"They know he is one of the big, brainy, capable Republicans of our state, and that his work for the party has been long efficient and faithful.

"But there is another point that is causing the Republicans of Scioto county to think—and after thinking, to decide to vote and support Mr. Daugherty for that is the nomination for senator. That is the fact that he is the southern Ohio candidate. Some people opposed to Daugherty have attempted to belittle this argument, but you can not keep down facts, and the facts are causing the Republicans of Scioto county to decide that the best thing for their interests is to have a southern Ohio man for senator, particularly when in point of ability he measures up with any other aspirant.

"The Republicans of our county have been noticing that it is a fact that northern Ohio and particularly Cleveland, receives unusual marks of favor from the government—and after thinking it over they are determining that the fact that northern Ohio has a monopoly on the senatorships and cabinet positions and high official positions generally is what sources for Cleveland and northern Ohio many of the things that unquestionably should go to southern Ohio. They note that when there is a regional reserve bank to be established in this state, it goes to Cleveland, when it is well known that southern Ohio, probably Cincinnati—the gateway to the south, should have had it. They now note that Cleveland will doubtless also secure the new Farm Loan bank to be established under the Rural Credits law. They have observed that Senator Pomeroy of northern Ohio, writes the Cincinnati business men that "his home town" is an applicant for this bank—and naturally his first interest is at home, and in the part of the state with which he is most familiar.

"Then another thing that is of vital importance to southern Ohio is the development of the Ohio river, to secure the completion of the system of dams that will give it a 9 foot stage the year around, and insure continual use of it. The Republicans of Scioto county are taking the view that a southern Ohio man knows more about these things, and the interests of this part of the state generally, than would a candidate from Cleveland.

Some testimony was taken in the cases of Carl Hagerman and J. A. Ridings in the mayor's court, Friday evening but they were continued until Monday evening when it is hoped to have other witnesses present.

Charges against the two men were preferred by Andy Leslie, an N. & W. detective. Hagerman was accused of stealing some fuses from an N. & W. caboose while Ridings was charged with receiving stolen property. Leslie testified that quite a number of fuses had been taken from the car. Hagerman claimed that he found a half dozen or so fuses in the yards. He said it was customary for employees to pick them up whenever they found them. Ridings said Hagerman had sent several fuses to his home through Lucy Herron, she giving them to Mrs. Ridings and that he burned them on the Fourth of July for fireworks. The Herron woman, however, testified that she gave the fuses to Ridings himself. Both men are employed at the N. & W. Terminals.

P. J. Lyons and Monroe Penn, solicitors for a magazine, who had a fight in front of the American restaurant Friday night, were fined $10 each, half of which was suspended.

The case of O. Daugherty whom Arthur Jewett charged with disorderly conduct was dismissed. The evidence showed it really to be a case for civil action. Plain drunks giving the names of Roy Keller and Joe Musie who were "picked up" at the N. & W. depot were fined $5 each.

Independent Taxi Co. Adds To Equipment

The Independent Taxicab company has added a new Ford town car to their equipment and will have another in service as soon as delivery can be made. This brings the equipment of the company up to twelve cars, four touring cars and eight taxicabs, in addition to the three trucks they have in operation. Two years ago the concern started with two touring cars. The Independent is also making a feature of country service after other garages are closed at night and they frequently are called on to bring in belated oil parties whose machines have broken down on the road.

Dies In Buggy, By Side Of His Wife

The Wellston Daily Sentinel, Friday, says:

"George Marsh, aged 75, a veteran of the civil war, died suddenly this morning at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. Marsh had enjoyed splendid health all his life to which he took pleasure in referring. Last night he took a pain in his side and it continued throughout the night. Early this morning he suggested to his wife that he had better go to see a physician, they having no phone, and they hitched up the horse and buggy and started to the office of Dr. Davis. When near the home of Al Thomas on No. 8 pike, Mr. Marsh suddenly gave a gasp and straightened his body. Mr. Thomas ran out and found that he was dead. The body was removed to the old home and relatives were summoned.

Besides his wife he leaves six daughters, Mrs. Edward McKinnis, Mrs. Walter Wykle and Mrs. Grant Lunson, of Wellston; Mrs. Maud Foster, of Columbus; Mrs. William Fitzer and Mrs. William McBrayer of Portsmouth.

"The deceased was a brave soldier in Co. I 1st Ohio Light Artillery during the war between the states and saw four years service. He was a member of James Smith Post No. 337, G. A. R.

"The funeral will be held Sunday."

CONSTIPATED, EASILY TIRED, LIVER NOT ACTING? A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Start Your Liver and Relieve Your Constipation in Half an Hour.

When your liver gets clogged the bile is forced back into the system instead of flowing into the intestines and helping them to expel the waste. Nature tries to relieve the liver by absorbing the bile, then you feel drowsy and get tired easily; your skin gets yellow, your complexion muddy and your tongue coated.

Start your liver going by taking a third of a tumblerful of Tollo Water in a glass of plain water before breakfast. In thirty minutes it will wash out the bile tubes of the liver and expel the waste from the system—not like calomel or strong drugs that irritate and weaken, but by giving the liver, stomach and bowels a bath just as you bathe the skin.

Tollo Water is concentrated and bottled at Dawson Springs, the famous Kentucky health resort. You can get a bottle from any drug store for 15 cents, and should take it regularly for several mornings until your skin clears up and you get back your old-time energy and health. After that an occasional glass before breakfast will keep your liver active, your bowels regular and your stomach in perfect condition.

D. of A. Are Busy

At the Daughters of America meeting Friday evening Irwin Bowser was elected as representative of the local council to attend the Old Age Pension League meeting to be held at the Hartman House, Columbus, Sunday. Garret Woods, Monroe Eligor and Frank Schmidt the Kora Carnival committee, reported their plans moving nicely. The D. of A. state convention will be held in Columbus, August 25. Anna Ribble, Margaret Anderson and Mary E. Bryoles are representatives from the local council to the convention.

Mrs. Baker Asks Divorce

A court dispatch in the Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Married at Portsmouth, Ohio, December 20, 1886, and with three grown children, Arminie Baker, is now suing for a divorce from Lyle Baker, and she wishes to rid herself of all recollection of him, so she asks the court to restore her maiden name, Neas, to her. Mrs. Baker accuses her husband of infidelity. She also charges neglect for three years. C. S. Sparks, attorney."

Auto Bumps Into Hay Wagon; The Occupants Then Beat Up Farmer

Dan Yost, a Buena Vista pike farmer, was set upon by an auto party of four men and rather roughly handled while driving an empty hay wagon towards his home below Pond Run, Friday evening.

The autoists were evidently "joy-riding" and speeding at the rate of about forty miles per hour, when they crashed into the hay wagon. Thoroughly enraged they leaped from their car and onto the wagon. All four commenced beating Yost unmercifully. He and one of the men finally clinched and rolled off the wagon to the road. Seeing Al Turner and some of his hired hands coming to Yost's rescue they hurriedly re-entered their machine and drove on. The car is thought to have come from Kentucky and how badly it was damaged was not learned. Yost is badly afflicted with asthma and was too weak to put up much of a defense.

Fair Crowd Affends

Considering the weather, a good-sized crowd attended the entertainment given in A. I. U. hall Friday evening by Queen of the Valley Temple, Sisters of the Mysterious Ten, a colored fraternal organization. A short play was given, in which the children of the members took part. At the close of the program ice cream and pop were served.

To the Republicans of Scioto County and the Sixth Congressional District:

The endorsement purporting to come from us which Mr. E. R. Young, of Ripley, is publishing in the interest of his candidacy for State Central Committeeman has no connection whatever with that matter. It was given Mr. Young, at his solicitation eighteen months ago when he was seeking aid in his application for a political position at Columbus.

We favor and endorse Col. D. Q. Morrow of Highland County for State Central Committeeman. Col. Morrow was unanimously endorsed by the delegates of the Sixth Congressional District and is the only regular candidate for the position.

In the April primary when Scioto county had a candidate for National delegate, George L. Davis, Mr. Morrow and his friends worked hard in Highland county for Geo. L. Davis. Scioto county Republicans should now return the favor by giving hearty support to D. Q. Morrow for State Central Committeeman from this Congressional District.

Very truly yours,
FRANK J. McCAFFERTY,
Chairman Brown Co. Rep. Ex. Com.
C. F. FARIS,

KEEPING ABREAST WITH SPORTING TREND

All Of Champs Go Higher

It is something very unusual for all the players of any one team to land berths in higher class league and draw a bigger salary when the league in which they are playing "blows", leaving them practically without jobs. This extraordinary feat has been accomplished by the Portsmouth 1916 Ohio State League team. Every player of the 1916 Portsmouth team is playing in a league of higher classification than the Ohio State and each is drawing more salary than they received here. Through the efforts of Will Fielder Jones, president of the local club every player has been placed with a good team and reports from the players say they are making good and expect to stick. Below is given a list of the players and the clubs with whom they are now playing:

Bilhoef, catcher, Milwaukee.
Jacobus, pitcher, Milwaukee.
Reb, pitcher, Milwaukee.
Ferguson, pitcher, Rocky Mount, Virginia.
Test, pitcher, Rochester, N. Y.
Hemmer, shortstop, Fall River, Mass.
Spencer, first base, manager, Springfield, O.
Bush, second base, Dallas.

Bauer, third base, Dawson Springs, Kentucky.
McHenry, left field, Milwaukee.
Pfeffer, center field, Owensboro, Kentucky.
Singleton, catcher, Raleigh, West Virginia.
Dills, right field, Dallas.
Sabaskus, pitcher, Kingston, West Virginia.
King, Owensboro, Ky.
Dallas and Galveston are in the Texas league; Owensboro and Dawson Springs, in the Kitty league; Rocky Mount in the Virginia league and Rochester in the International league.

WILL FIELDER JONES REPEAT HISTORY?

In 1906 Fielder Jones brought the White Sox from the near cellar to the pennant by a sensational climb, the team winning nineteen straight games. This season Fielder Jones is with the St. Louis Browns. The Browns were resting comfortably in seventh place until they awoke suddenly and started a winning streak which now makes them serious pennant contenders. On August 1st they established a season's record by winning their twelfth straight victory.

Is Fielder Jones repeating the remarkable history of 1906? Last season the St. Louis Browns, under Jones' able leadership, finished the race a close second.

Emmer Is Making Good

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Friday carried a splendid picture of Emmer, who is being used at the shortstop position by Manager Mathewson. Emmer was with Portsmouth in the Ohio State league. He has been hitting in grand style for the Philadelphiens. His showing at the bat is impressive, especially with his batting average picking up the former for looks to be fixed in the Red lineup.

A Mighty Smoker.

Emile Augier, the dramatist, was unfortunately addicted to tobacco. When he was writing "Le Gendre de M. Poirier" he used every morning on sitting down to work to fill twelve pipes, and he always continued smoking until he had smoked them all. At the end of the eighth pipe his mouth was so inflamed that every puff was painful, but it was then his practice to smear his tongue with butter so as to be able to smoke on in the bitter end. It is not surprising in the circumstances that his doctor warned him that unless he gave up smoking he would die of nicotine poisoning within twelve months. He did give it up, but his life was shortened by his habit.

The Head of Every Family

Is paying for a home. If he is living in a rented house, he is paying for his landlord's house, and when he has it paid for, it still belongs to the landlord, and he starts right in paying for it a second time.

When he adopts the ROYAL DEFINITE CONTRACT LOAN plan and has a home paid for, he owns the house and can quit paying or go on saving his money for some other plan to benefit himself and family.

INTEREST RATE IS REASONABLE

Some people say "I would buy a home but I have not enough to pay cash and the interest is so much." They let the interest scare them. The interest rate is six and seventy-six one-hundredths per cent. The renter pays this to his landlord and a profit besides.

SAVE THIS PROFIT FOR YOURSELF

Why, some people are buying houses through the Royal and letting the renter pay for them. They bring the rent to pay the payments on the loan.

Are you going to keep on buying the landlord's house or are you going to pay for a home of your own.

Come and see us. We will help you get your own home.

EVERYTHING ELECTRICAL

IT'S WARM ENOUGH THESE DAYS WITHOUT ADDING ANY MORE HEAT!

The idea right now is to reduce the heat in the home, the work shop and the factories. When the thermometer is hovering in the nineties, enjoy the cooling current from an electric fan—costs no more to operate it than burning an incandescent light. Don't swelter keep cool—an electric fan will solve the problem.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS GIVE BRILLIANT LIGHT AND NO HEAT!

The light is mellow, restful and as near like daylight as the sun's rays. Be comfortable, be happy, be contented, be sensible—do things electrical in these progressive days. Whether you own your home or rent it, you ought to see it has electric service. We will be glad to talk to you any time about how little it costs and what are its manifold advantages.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.
Lesson VI.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 6, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.
Text of the Lesson, I Cor. xiii—Memory Verses, 4-7—Golden Text, I Cor. xiii, 13—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

It is only in this epistle to those whom he calls babes and carnal Christians that he makes any reference to the matter of "tongues" which some believers make so much of in our day, and when he does mention them they are left on the list and in connection with the interpretation of tongues (chapter xii, 7, 10, 28). He also says, "Let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret," and "I had rather speak five words with my understanding, than I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue" (chapter xiv, 18, 19). The more excellent way of Love he sets before us in our lesson chapter. The great chapter on faith in Hebrews, where the word is used over twenty times. The great chapter on Hope in Romans, and this is one of the great Love chapters, but as to the use of the word, if we include the verb and the noun "beloved," it is found in I John xiv and our lesson chapter it is used nine times in each, if I have counted correctly.

We are certainly safe in saying that there is no topic in the whole Bible so wonderful as the love of God, but the great wonder is always the love of God to us, never our love to Him, which is not worth mentioning compared with His love to us. John is not spoken of as the disciple whom Jesus loved, it is not the love of Martha and Mary and Lazarus, but "Jesus loved Martha and Mary and Lazarus" (John xi, 5; xii, 22; xiv, 20; xx, 2; xxi, 7, 20). The words that hold me most strongly are such as these: "The Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." "Having loved His own," "I loved them unto the end, or the uttermost." "I have loved thee with an everlasting love" (Gal. ii, 20; John xiii, 1; Jer. xxxi, 3). These, with Eph. v, 25; John iii, 16; the many verses in I John iii and iv, and Song viii, 7, are to me some of the most wonderful, with John xv, 9. The first three lesson verses show the utter worthlessness of tongues, or feeling, or understanding mysteries, or knowledge, or advice, or giving all our goods to feed the poor, or even our bodies to be burned, apart from love. What a complete laying low of all that men might boast of that the love of God may be magnified and His love constraining us and working in us the works He has prepared for us. There is no room for boasting nor for any pride of man because of his ability to do this or that. The Lord alone must be exalted. Such love as is here described in our memory verses, 4-7, was never fully manifest in any one except in Jesus Christ, but He is able to manifest it in us.

It is no doubt true that all the fruit of the Spirit in Gal. v, 22, 23, is but different manifestations of love, joy being love exulting, peace love in repose, and so on. According to Col. i, 11, it requires all the might of His glorious power to make us patient and long suffering with joyfulness, but He is able to work all this in us if we will let Him. To be kind always, free from all good opinion of ourselves or envy of others, never provoked, never thinking nor speaking evil of any one, loving and enduring all things for His sake—what a heavenly life! Yet do not turn from it or say it cannot be done, but rather turn to Him and say, "Lord, do thou in me for Thy great name's sake." All our knowledge now is but partial, and if any man think that he knoweth anything he knoweth nothing, yet he ought to know (verses 8, 10; chapter viii, 2). We may know that we have become

PASTOR OF SCIOTOVILLE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

REV. HUGH J. DUDLEY,
Pastor of Sciotoville Christian Church

The members of the Sciotoville Christian church are to be congratulated upon securing the services of such an able pastor as Rev. H. J. Dudley, who was pastor at Jackson, O., for over four years. Rev. Dudley is over 45 years of age, married and has two children, Willis, aged 11, and Helen, aged 6.

He has been uniformly successful as militant pastor, for he has strengthened the organization of many weak churches, promoted the erection of buildings at Beaufort, Texas, Berwick, Pa., and he pushed to completion the great church at Phillipsburg, Pa.

But his greatest work has been accomplished—along evangelistic lines and his services on his first assignment to the Snow Hill district in Maryland resulted in 300 accessions and the number during his ministry has already exceeded 1,665, an accomplishment that speaks more for his work than any eulogy.

There is one feature of his ministry that has attracted general attention. Not only is he constantly employed in the service of his own people, but there are many calls for his ministrations from the community at large, especially from the lowly and the friendless, and none of these calls go unheeded.

Rev. Dudley prepares his sermons with great care, spending hours in the fields and woods for meditation, studying God's first Scripture, the book of Nature, but he does not write his sermons, does not use notes in the pulpit, and this gives his preaching a freshness that appeals to many.

Rev. Spring Returns

Pastor W. H. Spring will be the speaker at the regular monthly public meeting at the Temple theatre Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Mr. Spring has been filling out of town appointments and has not served here for some months past. The subject selected for Sunday afternoon is "The Three Ways" and the speaker can be depended upon to treat this subject in his usual exhaustive, interesting and instructive manner.

Many have supposed that the bible speaks of but two ways, i. e. The "Narrow Way" and the "Broad Way"; that but a very few travel the narrow way, the end of which is life, and that all the remainder of the millions who have lived and died have gone down the Broad Way the end of which, it is claimed, is everlasting torture. Thousands of earnest bible students do not fully concur with this theory, claiming that the bible teaching is much more reasonable than any human theories, and that three ways are most plainly set forth in the bible. It is respecting this very matter that the lecture Sunday afternoon has to do. The public is invited. No admission will be charged and no collections taken.

All Saints Church

In all probability the services to be held on Sunday, particulars of which may be found in the church column of this issue, will be the last for a month, as the rector will be absent for the next four Sundays. An attempt is being made to secure the services of a priest to supply during the rector's absence, but it is not very likely that it will be successful, as it is very difficult to obtain help at this time of the year in an inland parish unless the same should happen to be a health resort or commend itself in other ways to priests who are available as supplies. May we hope to have a large attendance of our people at both services on Sunday? If you are going to be in the city come to church tomorrow.

At Second Church

Rev. L. O. Richmond, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church at Terre Haute, Ind., will deliver two sermons at the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. All members of the Second church are expected to turn out at both services.

Pastor Will Enjoy Vacation

Sunday evening will be Rev. Samuel Lindenmeyer's last sermon at the German Evangelical church for two weeks, as he begins a two weeks' vacation Monday. No one will be in his place during his absence. Rev. Lindenmeyer expects to leave Monday for Mt. Clemens, Mrs. Lindenmeyer and son, Armin, will spend two weeks at Amherst, O., visiting friends.

At First Presbyterian

Rev. W. H. Christian, of Georgetown, O., will deliver sermons at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening at the usual time.

REV. GILLILAND WILL PREACH

Rev. W. T. Gilliland, pastor of Many church has finished a several weeks' vacation and will fill his pulpit tomorrow morning and evening. Most of his vacation was spent at home on account of Mrs. Gilliland's illness. Rev. Gilliland spent a few days this week in Lancaster, O., attended an Epworth league institute.

Sunday morning Rev. Gilliland's subject will be "Active Faith" and in the evening "Sunshine and Shadow." Sunday morning August 13 there will be special services at the church for the reception of new members and baptism of adults.

C. E. Society Will Enjoy Camp Visit

The Local C. E. Society of the First Christian church will turn their regular Sunday evening prayer meeting into an "outdoor" meeting tomorrow, when they will be the guests of some of their faithful members at Dressler's Camp, just across the river in Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Williams and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. John I. Ant and son are spending the week over there, and are anticipating a number of Christian Endeavor guests tomorrow evening. They will meet at the church Sunday at 4 p. m. and go to the lower ferry to cross the river. Anyone enjoying the novelty of going to the country to go to church and wishing to attend a real live meeting is cordially invited to go with them. Miss Grace Johnson will lead this meeting.

Borrowed A Horse

Clifford Swords was bound over to grand jury in the sum of $500 Byron's court on a charge of horse stealing. Not being able to furnish bond, he was remanded to the county jail.

Swords pleaded guilty to taking a horse from a dairy farm on the West Side belonging to Frank Schonberger several evenings ago and after riding it a few miles turning it out in someone's pasture. The prisoner claimed that he just "borrowed the horse for a ride and did not steal it."

Bible School Day At First Christian Church; Noted Woman Coming

At the First Christian church, Sunday, the congregation will observe Bible School Day. Miss Cynthia Pearl Mous, Cincinnati, secretary and superintendent of the State Bible School Work, will teach a lesson at nine o'clock. Then at the evening services, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, she will speak on "Bible School Work." The public is cordially invited to hear Miss Maus, who comes highly recommended as a speaker.

JOSEPH T. TRACY
FOR STATE AUDITOR

Experience Has Equipped Him
For This Office

The candidacy of Joseph T. Tracy of Portsmouth, O., for Auditor of State, is looked upon with much favor by Ohio Republicans throughout the state, as he is the only candidate presented for a place on the Republican state ticket from twenty-four counties of southern Ohio, which furnish over one-fourth of the Republican vote of the state.

Mr. Tracy has been connected with the Auditor of State's office for the past fourteen years, in charge of city, village, school and township work. This, together with his previous experience as Auditor of Scioto county, and as State Examiner of County Officers, has given him a practical knowledge of public affairs, which can only be gained by actual experience, and has especially equipped him for State Auditor. The party has always nominated for State Auditor one who has served as county auditor.

In the fields of both business and labor all believe in promotion for efficiency; why should not the same policy be applied in state affairs, by giving merited recognition to one who has the experience necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of this most important office? A higher degree of service is demanded by the people each year of all public officials, and Mr. Tracy, by his recognized ability, will especially appeal to all voters.

SOLDIERS AT SCHOOL

Sergeants Theron B. Matthews, Robert Padan, Clifford B. Anderson and John McGraw, and Corporals Walter Mathiot, James Barber, Musician J. Bennett and Artificer Clarence Nagel left Saturday morning for Camp Proctor, near Cincinnati, where they will attend the "Non-Com" school for the next six days.

Inspector Philip G. Wrightson, United States Army, has charge of the camp. When Inspector Wrightson was commandant at the University of Wisconsin several years ago, Lieut. Joseph Horchow, this city, was a captain in one of the companies.

BUMPED ED'S TRUCK

Dr. A. G. Stevens, of South Webster, crashed into the rear of Ed Stahler's auto truck on Gallia street a few days ago. The front of the physician's car was considerably damaged.

New Hose Is Here

The 1000 feet of new fire hose recently purchased by the board of control of the Eureka Fire Hose company arrived in the city over the N. & W. Saturday.

I recall your very generous and courteous treatment of Scioto county in making up the State Executive Committee."

Very truly yours,
CHARLES E. HARD.

What Mr. Morrow had to say to Mr. Young under date of Aug. 22, 1914.

D. Q. MORROW.

Geek's Minstrel To Be Held Later

The Geeks, at their meeting Friday night decided to change the time for holding their proposed minstrel entertainment until colder weather. It has been planned to give the minstrel show the latter part of August or early in September, but it will likely be held a month or two later. No definite date was agreed upon. Final action upon the annual indoor fair, to raise funds for the Geeks' charitable work of providing poor boys and girls with shoes this winter, was postponed, pending the fixing of the date for the minstrel show.

Jacob P. Findeis and Elmer Jones were the candidates admitted to membership in the order at this meeting.

Want A Temporary Road To Avoid Dogwood Ridge Detour

A delegation of Wheelersburg citizens presented a petition to the board of county commissioners Saturday, asking that a temporary road be constructed around the roadway being built by the Sheridan-Kirk Company, so that they can get around the work now being done and get onto the pike and come straight into Sciotoville without having to take the Dogwood Ridge detour. It is pointed out that the state law explicitly says that not more than one mile of pike shall be torn up and closed at one time and that in this case a very short temporary road would enable travelers to get around the mile allowed. Property owners have agreed to the use of land and the cost would be very small. The petition asking for the temporary road was signed by about 75 men from the Wheelersburg neighborhood. Men representing the petitioners stated that the road has been torn up exactly nine weeks and that not a foot of it has been opened for travel as yet. One-half mile of brick has been laid and concreted, about three-quarters of a mile has been concreted and foundation made ready for laying brick, while a mile of curbing has been finished.

It is stated that the work started off briskly and there was no reason for complaint. Of late the work has been dragging along slowly, most of the men being pulled off to another job of the contractors. Much of the equipment has also been taken for the same job and it looks now as though the road will be tied up for months. For this reason the Wheelersburg citizens are insisting that the commissioners give them temporary relief so that in good weather, at least, they will not be compelled to make the long detour around Dogwood Ridge with their teams.

Herrick Men Are Confident Declares League Secretary

"The candidacy of Myron T. Herrick for United States senator has been endorsed by and has met with the approval of such men as Warren S. Stone, the head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and John Moore, president of the Ohio Blue Workers," according to Aronhold C. Schapiro, secretary of the Herrick Voters' League of Scioto County. "Not only has Mr. Herrick's candidacy met with the approval of such men as these, to say nothing of Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, but from all parts of the state he has been endorsed by business men, manufacturers, farmers and labor leaders and his candidacy is meeting with universal approval."

HERE IS REAL TOMATO CHAMP

When it comes to raising tomatoes, George Keller does not step aside for anybody in the city or county. He showed The Times Saturday two tomatoes, picked at random off his vines at his home on Eighteenth street, one of which weighed 33 ounces and the other 31 ounces. Incidentally Mr. Keller also brought around a basket of the same kind just to show that he did not just have an occasional large tomato. If there is anybody else who cares to dispute this record, The Times would be glad to hear from them.

The Ohio Valley Bank

Thrift does not mean saving merely. It is more than industry, Prudence, Economy and Frugality, for in fact it comprehends them all.

The Ohio Valley Bank and its Savings Department submits this definition "The habit of thrift teaches a man to earn largely. That he may save wisely. That he may be able to spend advantageously in the time of need and opportunity. When the need will be greater or the opportunity better than the present."

This advantage is gained by starting a Savings Account early and adding thereto regularly making your earnings accumulate three per cent interest.

ADAM FRICK, Cashier

To Democratic Voters

Primaries for the selection of state, district and county candidates will be held Tuesday, August 8th and I am writing to you urging that you make it a point to vote and also get all of your Democratic friends that you can to go to the polls. It is highly important that there be a representative vote cast and I hope that you will do your share.

Permit me to call your attention to the fact that Senator Atlee Pomeroy is a candidate for renomination and that he is opposed by John J. Lentz who seems to be in the race solely to further the cause of republicanism. He is pursuing the same tactics he followed two years ago in fighting Hon. T. S. Hogan. Lentz knows he cannot be nominated. He is a candidate to make trouble and it is hoped that Scioto county democrats will rebuke his actions by giving Senator Pomeroy a record vote. He deserves it on his splendid record as a statesman.

Hon. James M. Cox, who has always been a staunch friend of Scioto county democracy, is a candidate for renomination and is opposed by A. P. Sandles, of Ottawa. Like Mr. Lentz, Mr. Sandles does not expect to be nominated. His campaign has been one of modish bullets that will be used later by republican speakers. Mr. Cox has a splendid record of being elected and let Scioto county show her loyalty by giving him unanimous endorsement at the primary.

For Lieutenant Governor party leaders over the state are united for Senator E. J. Hopple, of Cleveland, an able and capable man, who will lend strength to the ticket and make a splendid official if elected.

Among the candidates for state office there are also two Southern Ohio men, whom I commend to your consideration. One is Hon. Joseph McGhee, of Jackson, candidate for Attorney General, and the other is Hon. Thornton M. Snyder, of Cincinnati, candidate for secretary of state. Both are good men, and deserving.

Pike county, which has always been most loyal to Scioto county in political affairs, has a candidate for state senator in Hon. George A. Schausel, of Waverly. He is a fine, clean man, a good business man and a staunch democrat. I sincerely hope that you will remember Mr. Schausel when you vote.

If you have no committeeman certified in your precinct, get together on some good Democrat and write in his name. Let us have our organization ready for the campaign and go in and fight. President Wilson is going to be re-elected and we want to do our share. Start right by voting on August 8th.

There are three candidates for congress, Hon. A. G. Turnipseed, of Adams county, Hon. E. B. Stivers, of Brown county and Hon. W. F. Rousebush, of Clermont county. They are all good men, each with special points to recommend him. They have been in this county several times and you doubtless have had opportunity to meet and size them up. Let me urge you to study them and vote for the man who appeals best to you as a possible representative at Washington.

The county candidates you of course know and they need no mention as to their ability and fitness.

In the contest for Commissioner you will want to vote for three men and for congress for one man. Be sure and mark your choice.

In other cases, both state and county, where there is no opposition remember that you must mark the candidate in order to have your ballot count.

I am taking the liberty of enclosing a sample, unofficial ballot marked along the lines indicated in this letter and trust you will remember the men marked when you vote.

I trust you will not think me presuming in addressing you. I know the candidates on the state ticket, have had an opportunity to become familiar with their capacity and standing and know that the feeling among Democrats in general over the state is that the names I have indicated will go to make up a strong, well balanced state ticket. Of course if you have any individual choice I believe it is your duty to vote your convictions.

Don't forget to vote August 8th. Show your interest in President Wilson by voting and by getting your fellow democrats to vote.

Yours sincerely,
HARRY E. TAYLOR.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

Friday, August 4, 1916. It is now over a month that the great French-British "sweep" on the Somme was started which was to bring the end of the war by a rush to the Rhine. "On a front length of about 25 miles, they have been able to advance three miles but the German lines remain intact. They have paid for this small gain with 350,000 men. Our losses are light in comparison to theirs. The slowness of their advance has enabled us to erect new works behind our former lines as strong as the lost ones. At Verdun we have captured as much ground again than they have taken on the Somme."

This statement was issued by the German staff on August 1, the second anniversary of the French declaration of war on Germany. It illustrates the situation on the Somme.

There was another Sunday battle. Berlin says: "The enemy's attacks were everywhere repulsed with very heavy losses to him. He did not gain a foot of ground. We captured 12 officers, 769 men and 13 machine guns in a counter attack."

On Tuesday the British war of force reported the situation virtually unchanged since the battle.

Wednesday it claimed that German attacks near Bazentin on the Bapaume road and at Lihons, where the French face the German lines west of Chaubouss and south of Peronne, had been repulsed. In Chaubouss the Germans have their big etappe depots for this part of the front. Lihons is a French junction point.

On the same day the French took a fortified position, the Monacu farm in the forest of Hem close to the river Somme, where the roads from Maricourt to Clercy and from Herbecourt to Comblies cross each other, according to Paris.

Berlin says of the affair: "North of the Somme the enemy made a fruitless attack in the Maupas sector with large masses of troops. After he had suffered a bloody check by German battalions at the Monacu farm, he held the surrounding woods. On the hill road from Maricourt to Clercy (same sector) the enemy advanced to our completely destroyed trenches. His losses have been heavy again. There have been local engagements south of the Somme at Belloy and Estrees. Of the latter the French say that all German attacks were repulsed."

Berlin stated on Thursday the British were yet fighting hard in the wooded region between Pozieres and Longueval. They had taken the forest of Delville, but were driven out of the Fourreaux woods.

General Haig's reports are considered encouraging," London says. When analyzed without the glare of headlines and Aldershot speculates do not differ much from what has come from Berlin. The week's end finds the Allies not much further than were they were last week.

Of interest is what a Paris official report says of the fight at Pozieres: "A single Bavarian company held a barricade in the streets twelve hours. When it was taken there were only four of the defenders left. A Bavarian battalion was cut down while fighting its way from the village to the cemetery, where it made another stand."

French in an attack on a three mile front in the Laufee woods recaptured several German trenches with supports and held them. Berlin concedes the loss of a trench section.

Paris reports that heavy fighting is going on for the possession of Fleury. The French got into the village but were driven out again with the exception of some houses in the northern part. According to Paris it was the battle of the age. Reminds us of the August days of 1914.

The latest Berlin war bulletin reads: "Very heavy attacks on a broad front between Thiaumont and Laufee works have been repulsed. The enemy gained a footing on west slope of Pepper Hill and in some trenches at Fleury but was driven out. Fleury and woods are in our hands again."

The main efforts of the Russians in the eastern field continue to be directed against Lemberg and Kovel. The heaviest fighting has lately been in the Kovel-Lutsk sector along a line of some 30 miles west of the Sty river to the Volhynia-Galician frontier, where one wave of Russian attack against General Linsingen's lines has followed the other.

The Russians flanked Brody, some sixty miles east of Lemberg, an open town and of no strategic value, and Linsingen gave up the Stockhof bend, against which they were pressing hard, in order to shorten his front and gain a better position for the protection of Kovel, Sokul and Vladimir-Volynski west of the river. He saves troops for other purposes.

General Kaledins, the Russian general operating against Linsingen, had to turn from Kovel to assist General Sakharoff, who is being pressed by Boehm-Ermolli. The latter has taken the offensive in two directions from Lemberg.

The Vienna war office announced on Wednesday: "West and northwest of Lutsk the Russians, evidently outplanned, have suspended operations, but they are attacking on the Stockhof bend and north of the Sami-Kovel railroad. All attacks have been repulsed so far with heavy losses to them and 1,389 prisoners for us."

In a Petersburg bulletin, August 5, retreat of Russians on the Stockhof north of Kovel is admitted.

General Letshitzky's drive into Hungary, of which we heard so much a couple weeks ago (via Petrograd) came to a stop at the Carpathian heights in Southeastern Bukovina. He is now pressing on the right bank of the Dniester against Stanislaw, where the roads from Lemberg and Strzy come together, joining in the Russian movement against Lemberg from the north. "Efforts to break Bothmer's lines in this region have so far been unsuccessful."

Prince Leopold reports that new attacks of the Russians in massed formation on his position south of Skrobova, following the ones on Nobel lake (swamps formed by the junction of Pripet and Strumina rivers) and at Logishin on the Oginski canal, north of Pinsk, have been repulsed by the Prussian cavalry guards fighting dismounted in the swamps. This puts Pinsk safe for the moment.

General Hindenburg, whom Amsterdam has elevated to the supreme command on the eastern front, speaks in his last report of another attempt of the Russians to cross the Misse south of Riga between Eekau and Ueskull and cut the railroad to Mitau, his advance base. They didn't get even to his trenches.

Hints come from Berlin that large forces are being concentrated at Lemberg for a possible offensive.

The Berlin war office states that the Germans from April to July had taken 11,000 and the Austrians 18,000 prisoners from the Russians at the east front.

The Serbians, which have appeared anew in Macedonia with a smaller army but full regiments and batteries re-equipped, failed in their initial attempt on the Bulgarian lines north of Saloniki last week. A battalion attacked the Kahovo advance positions of the Bulgarians but was driven back. Later a division tried to storm the Bojar heights but was also driven off. By a counter-attack the Bulgars drove the Serbs out of their ditches. So Sofia reports.

From the Austro-Italian front engagements in the Astico valley, southeast of Trient, with Italian victory are reported by Rome, and a repulse of new Austrian attacks on Monte Cimone. Late Vienna reports say: "All attacks at Paveveglio have been repulsed." Here Cadorna is trying to get into the Fleimser valley between Bozen and Trient but so far has been blocked.

Three different Zeppelin raids on the British east coast, according to London without much damage, are recorded for this week.

Besides other big British ships the Cook liner Britannic, 3,487 tons, was sunk by a German submarine according to Lloyds. The loss of the Italian steamship Città di Messina, 2,400 tons, also is announced by the same agency.

In the Northern Adriatic the Italian submarine Giacinto Pullino was captured with a crew of twenty-one and taken to Pola, as the Austrian admiralty reports.

The Italian mail steamer Leimbro has been sunk by a submarine in the Mediterranean. It tried to escape after warning, when it was fired upon. Loss of life as yet unknown.

The Italian admiralty admits the loss of two submarines.

Sir Roger Casement was hanged in London on Thursday morning for indirect participation in the Dublin revolution, no reprieve having been granted. The Irish call him patriot and martyr, the British, renegade and traitor. His last words were "I die for my country!" Morituri te salutant!

Count Inouye, the Japanese ambassador to England, told a press interviewer in Toronto that the yellow peril idea originated with the German emperor. (In our Pacific States it has been practically demonstrated.) Japan furnished Russia the munition for her present campaign, Inouye admitted. He says: "All government arsenals and private industries were mobilized for that purpose." (And for prospective Japanese trouble with the United States.)

A semi-official Tokio paper says of the special secret treaty between Russia and Japan: "Three things stand out: Friendship, the strengthening of, of other hands in China and the Far East and to help Russia on the Balkan and in Persia. It means a new quadruple alliance between Japan, Russia, England and France." With the United States left out.

The German Imperial office for the distribution of food products says: "The reports about crop conditions from all parts of the land are exceedingly favorable. The weather has been propitious for the development of cereals. With good weather at harvest time we will have an ample middle crop as far as rough fodder and breadstuffs are concerned."

The war costs England every day $28,000,000, France $15,000,000, Germany $25,000,000, Russia $15,000,000, Austria, $8,000,000 by estimate of the American Peace Society. The French statistician Gayot figures that if it should last another four years three-quarters of the world will be mortgaged and the only solvent big nation will be the United States.

If during war a civilian carries arms and attacks the enemy, he is considered a guerilla, in Europe called franc-tireur. The Germans have applied the term and principle to war at sea. A merchantman captain, named Fryatt, who resisted search and rammed a submarine after stopping at the warning, has been shot. Guerillas are considered outside of the law. During our civil war some were shot every day.

The Deutschland is on her home trip. When she heaved anchor Captain Koenig in bidding the United States custom officers good bye said: "When we came we didn't know how we would be received, but we return with the conviction that the American people is friendly to us. We have been treated more than kind. The fatherland will never forget it."

The price of a pound of butter in Berlin and other German cities is at present $1.18, coffee, 88 cents, beef 59 cents, pork 67 cents, sugar 15 cents, coal oil, 18 cents, as high again as in this country. An egg costs 5 cents. Flour, potatoes, beans and vegetables are comparatively low.

The new Mexican ambassador in Paris, Sanchez Ancona, has published a statement that the policy of Mexico toward the United States has never been influenced by Germany.

Chile and Argentina have refused the British request to requisition German ships in their ports.

A new Zeppelin of 750 feet length has been successfully tried at Friedrichshafen on Lake Constance.

Since beginning of the war Russia has put six million men into the field. By German calculation it has lost one-third of them.

On May 18 a woman named Pfadt was court martialed and sentenced to death for espionage at Marseilles, France. She appealed but the death sentence has now been confirmed.—Overseas News Agency.

The Bank of England has stopped her weekly bullion (gold) reports. Looks ominous!

Britain has refused to let Red Cross medical supplies pass to any territory occupied by the Central Powers.

Baron Newton stated in the British parliament that the Germans shot two Irish prisoners in Camp Limburg because they refused to join Casement's expedition to Ireland. The charge is as low-minded as the act would have been.

By statement of the German admiralty the Entente Powers have lost 49 war ships of 562,000 tons in the last two years, three times as many as the Germans did.

Paris says that the Germans have 122 divisions, 1,700,000 men on the west front, only half as many as the French and British have. Don't think that Paris has the figures from the German general staff.

Theodore Botrel, the singer of the soldiers at the French front, has been named by a shot. During the Boer war Botrel was the singer of the Bretons and inspired them by his songs against the English.

In Santiago, Chile, a pro-German daily, Tiempo Nuevo, has been established. La Union of Buenos Ayres, which has a similar tendency, has been enlarged. Both papers are much patronized by officers and soldiers, who admire the German army.

Karlsruhe papers just come to hand state that by the last French flyer bombardment on Corpus Christi day 110 persons were killed, 30 men, 5 women and 75 children, and 147 persons, 48 men, 20 women and 79 children were wounded.

Consul General Harris in Frankfurt in a late report to our department of commerce states: "1915 crops in Germany were as a whole below the average, the potato crop being fairly good, while that of food products for livestock was much below average and had a marked effect upon the supply of meat, milk, poultry and eggs. The forecast of crops in 1916 shows increased acreage in grain, vegetables and sugar beets. Considerable waste land has been rendered productive, and it is said that much attention is being given to those crops that will best secure a food supply not only for the people but for live stock."

To The Republican Voters Of Scioto County:

W. D. TREMPER

I am a candidate for renomination for the office of State Senator at the primaries to be held Tuesday, August 8th and would appreciate your support. Two years ago I won the nomination after a fair contest, and in accordance with party custom, I should be entitled to a second term without opposition, so far as my party is concerned. However my opponent of two years ago is again a candidate, and this makes it necessary for me to again enter actively into the Republican primary.

During my legislative career at Columbus, I did my best to help uphold the state administration of Governor Willis in fulfilling the platform pledges of the party, through the enactment of necessary laws and I invite the closest scrutiny of my acts and votes while serving as Senator.

To those voters who may not know me, permit me to say that for thirty years I practiced dentistry in Portsmouth and have been identified with various enterprises in that city. At present I am secretary of the Royal Building & Loan Association of Portsmouth. I am also deeply interested in agricultural matters, owning a large farm near Portsmouth, where we endeavor to keep up with the best ideas of up-to-date farming. Agricultural problems that come before the legislature receive my earnest attention.

In this year, with a president and state officers to elect,

Republican Voters Should Be Alert

and willing to take part. They should show their interest in and loyalty to the Old Party by participating in the primary. I hope you will vote. If you think that on my record I am entitled to your support for a second term, it will be greatly appreciated. If you wish to support my opponent, that is your privilege and I have no quarrel with you, but I do ask you to vote, to show that Scioto county Republicans are in the great fight that is to come this Fall.

Remember the Primary Date is Tuesday, August 8th. Make it a point to vote. Show that Scioto County Republicans are alive and eager for the battle.

It is National Touring Week and will be so observed. Every dealer and every automobile supply shop in the country is preparing to accommodate a host of tourists who are going to take part in the National Touring Week. The movement was inaugurated by a group of enthusiastic automobile owners to interest every one in better roads and better facilities for touring. It is being backed by most of the automobile clubs and many of the automobile companies and accessory houses.

Only High Class Pig Iron Used For Castings

The Studebaker Purchasing Department selects pig iron of the purest quality for Studebaker castings, direct from the blast furnaces, says a well known official of the Studebaker Corporation. Added to this iron there is 30% of steel. The iron and steel are put into a cupola and, with coke burning under forced draft, are melted. A chemical is added to flow off the impurities, and at the bottom of the cupola the mixture of iron and steel runs in a glowing liquid ready for the molders. But long before the first motor was cast, its intricate design had

HOTELS CATERING TO AUTO TOURISTS

National Touring Week Bug has bitten even the larger hotels throughout the country. These hotels, constantly catering to the touring motorist, readily enter the spirit of Touring Week. Notices are being sent out by some of the larger Tourist hotels throughout the country calling attention to National Touring Week and to the advantages of a sojourn at their respective hostleries.

Good hotels and good garages are as much a desired feature of touring as good roads. Long before the present good roads, which now exist in practically every state, the resort hotels catered to motor car owners and received his patronage. With some of these resort hotels today the motor trade represents from fifty to seventy-five per cent of the guests. This is specially true of the seaboard, lake and mountain resorts, the recreation or playgrounds of Mr. American Tourist.

EVERY TOWN HAS CHALMERS

Since her debut, the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers has found a home in every town. Today she is climbing the Berkshires, milling in Fifth Avenue traffic, plowing through Iowa gumbo, skimming the level roads of Ohio, frisking the faultless highways of California. She has found favor in Gotham and Gallipoli, in New Orleans and Norman, in Birmingham and Butte, in Seattle and San Jose.

From every metropolis and crossroads shower letters of congratulation. We must be frank. We are proud of these letters. For they mean that our efforts have been rewarded, our beliefs vindicated—that 3400 r. p. m. has gone across. We knew the six-30 could climb. Our engineers had proved that to our satisfaction many months before she was placed on the market. They had put 3400 r. p. m. on the rack when they sent her hiking over the steepest grades of hilly Pennsylvania. She took to the mountain trails like a burro. The foregoing is the opinion of an official of the Chalmers plant.

If you have a room which is not occupied you should be using TIMES WANT ADS.

OWNS BIG RUBBER PLANTATION

Heretofore, one of the great sources of price fluctuation in tires, as well as in every other article made of rubber, has been due to conditions at the source of supply.

As long as American manufacturers of tires had to depend on the gathering of crude rubber by South American natives, they were at the mercy of all sorts of climatic and physical conditions. No company having its rubber gathered from South American sources could depend, with any degree of certitude, on the quantity of rubber that it would be able to receive from native sources or upon the delivery of such rubber, inasmuch as floods, disease, blights and many other conditions entered into the problem.

Six years ago the United States Rubber Company began building for the future. This great organization—the largest producer of rubber goods in the world—purchased 90,000 acres of land in the Island of Sumatra. Since then it has devoted this tremendous plantation to the cultivation of the best quality of rubber. Today 5,600,000 rubber trees have been planted. Over 1,000,000 are being tapped.

The direction of this work is in the hands of experts, who have under them an army of coolies who tend the trees in much the same way as a fine orchard would be looked after in this country.

WOMAN DRIVES ON LONG TOUR

Mrs. Dick O'Bannon, of Sherman, Texas, motored into Detroit, last week in her pet automobile, "Bill."

"Bill" is a Maxwell touring car with a fine appetite for the open road, but a very moderate thirst. "He is strictly temperance," said Mrs. O'Bannon. "I kept close track on his gasoline consumption and it averaged 24 miles to the gallon on the long trip from Dallas to Detroit." Residents of her home town are all wrought up over Mrs. O'Bannon's long tour. She says the folks are betting against her making a finished job of it. The men folks are particularly skeptical, merely because she set out to show the tour could be made without a man along.

URGE SUPPORT FOR MORROW

Scioto County Republicans are urged to support D. Q. Morrow for state central committeeman on the Republican ticket in the coming primary, according to information received at the local Republican headquarters Saturday.

The unanimous support of Scioto county for Mr. Morrow should be given," it was announced, "because Mr. Morrow and his friends of Highland county stood solidly behind the candidacy of George L. Davis for delegate from the Sixth street to the national convention. While on the other hand E. R. Young, of Brown county, and his friends opposed the Scioto county candidate.

The two candidates for state central committeeman from the Sixth district are D. Q. Morrow, of Highland, and E. R. Young, of Brown.

Uniform Rank W. O. W. Off For Encampment

The Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, left Friday afternoon for the annual encampment of this district, which comprises Ohio and Michigan, Saturday afternoon. The encampment is to be held at Mt. Clemens, Mich. Every member of the local uniformed rank left the city with a determination to win first or second prize in the annual contest between the various companies. To the prize winners, a free trip to the national convention will be given.

On account of a meeting of the state executive committee of the order, to be held at Columbus Sunday, Roy McElhane, major of the 117th regiment, was unable to accompany the local boys on their trip, but will join them later.

A rousing meeting of the local camp was held Friday evening at which the ceremonies of initiation were conferred upon the following candidates: Isiah Shatin, John Naus, Dock Adkins, Isaac Fannin and H. D. Lawder.

Those leaving Saturday were: Capt. Leskey Janetzky, Lovell Lewis, Darrell Mareinda, O. Cassidy, Thos. Cassidy, Will Sargent, Louis Evans, Harrison Miller, Curtis Miller, Charles Miller, Everett Rothwell, George Neuson, John Oakes, Fred Skidmore, O. Brown, C. Brown, W. Ratcliff, Grant Perry, Henry Toller.

Mr. Schapiro Honored

A Schapiro, proprietor of the Corner Book Store, returned Friday evening from Delaware where he attended the annual convention of the Ohio State Booksellers' and Stationary association. Mr. Schapiro was elected trustee of the association for a period of one year.

The next meeting is to be held at Columbus sometime next summer. John Woods, Cleveland, who for two years was president of the national association, was selected president of the Ohio organization.

SNYDER BACKED BY DEMOCRATS

Hamilton County Lawyer for Secretary of State.

Well Equipped for Position

The Democrats of Hamilton County, with one accord, have agreed to present the name of Thornton R. Snyder for the nomination of the office of Secretary of State; and they appeal to their fellow Democrats everywhere throughout the State of Ohio to co-operate with them in the recognition of a man who is worthy of the suffrage of the people of Ohio.

Notwithstanding the fact that Hamilton County is rated "the Republican stronghold," Democrats there, by the hardest kind of work, manage to keep the torch of Democracy aflame, and may always be counted upon for forty thousand votes.

The Hamilton County Democracy has not put forward a candidate on the State ticket, with the exception of Judson Harmon, for thirty years, and the nomination of Mr. Snyder will be of great encouragement to them.

Mr. Snyder is a lawyer. He is a scholar and is deeply versed in the history of his country; he is loyal to the principles upon which the government of these States is founded; he believes in the equality of man. He is a Democrat because he is convinced that government should be divorced from the influence of low and paltry motives; that it should be something more than an agency for the promotion of selfish, personal advantages. This belief he carried into effect during his membership of the General Assembly. As leader of the Hamilton County delegation he exerted his powerful influence to bring about the enactment of those humane and progressive laws that are the crowning glory of the Democratic Party, and which are likewise the most brilliant and precious jewels in the diadem of the State of Ohio.

Young in years, but wise in counsel, than whom a better and more patriotic legislator Ohio never knew. He comes before the people with a career in the public service with deeds done; the testimonials of his fitness are to be found not in words spoken but in things accomplished.

He is without a courageous man; and like all courageous men, he is a man of his word. He is a clear and entertaining speaker; he always speaks with force; no man ever left his presence in doubt as to where Mr. Snyder stood upon the issues that divide the people of the United States. Yet he is not a bigoted partisan. He is a worshiper of the immutable principles of truth, as proclaimed by Thomas Jefferson. He would have all men freed from fanaticism, especially that fanaticism, which honors wealth at the expense of want. It is his belief that ignorance always leads to servitude; hence he is assured that the salvation of the mass of our people depends upon the success and perpetuity of the Democratic Party.

Mr. Snyder is known in Hamilton County as a man who delights to walk the straight path of right; he is not a trimmer nor is he a double dealer—he is a bold, courageous and outspoken Democrat.

SANDLES FOR GOVERNOR

"PUT" CAN WIN IN OHIO

A. P. Sandies, of Putnam county, can get the Democratic vote in Ohio, and thousands of Republicans.

Putnam county always gives a majority to the Democratic State, District, and County candidates.

Hon. James M. Cox, in 1914, had a clear majority in only fourteen counties. Putnam was one of the fourteen.

"Put" Sandies is favorably known in every county and township. Has no prejudice against any creed or faction.

He has met and shaken hands with more "Common Folks" in Ohio, than any other man.

Mr. Sandies is strong in Rural Districts. Mr. Willis does not want him as his opponent.

The experience of Mr. Sandies in public life eminently fits him to help work out the problems of Farm and City.

"Put" Sandies, if nominated, will be elected. Democrats will win in every close district and county in Ohio.

His official record has repeatedly stood the rigid test of Republican and Democratic inspectors.

Vote for the man who can defeat Willis.

Many Children Died In Past Month

In making out his report for the month of July, John Berndt, clerk of the Health Board discovered that there were 18 deaths of children under one year of age, for the past month alone. This is an unusually large number and the largest number in any month since Clerk Berndt's been in office. During the month there were 46 deaths and six still births. Eighteen of the 46 were under one year old. Summer complaint, measles and pneumonia caused the majority of the infant deaths. Improper feeding is given as the cause for illness and the base for the development of the different diseases. One of the leading physicians said Friday: "Pasteurized milk should be the only milk used in feeding babies." I have noticed a number of times where milk met in delivering milk take it out of their wagons where there is no ice and set the bottle on a porch where sometimes it stands several hours in the hot sun and in this short while becomes unfit for use," continued the physician in discussing the cause for the increased number of deaths. "The heat has something to do with it," said the doctor.

by the authorities, and confessed that he killed his father.

The body of Gullion, Sr., was badly decomposed, and was found in a briar patch on top of a hill. He had evidently been killed by the contents of a shot gun shell fired into his back. The body was buried on the spot it was found. Gullion, Sr., who was for years a ferryman at South Point, O., disappeared on June 24. The ferryman's son, in telling how he murdered his father, said he stood about thirty feet away from him when he fired the shot gun. The authorities, however, believe the distance much shorter.

Following the confession and finding of his father's body, Gullion remained sullen in the jail at Ironton yesterday and refused to discuss the case further. His preliminary hearing will be held today or tomorrow, probably. Gullion exhibited no remorse for the crime, observers state.

Mrs. Gullion, of Huntington, wife of the murder victim, went to Ironton yesterday, and is reported as stating that her husband on the day he disappeared, had $140 in his possession. Mrs. Gullion expressed her intention of visiting the scene of the crime.

BLUE RIBBON FEATURE AT LYRIC

"God's Country and the Woman," special Vitaphone Blue Ribbon feature, from the book by James Oliver Curwood, is a story of the Canadian Northwest, of the woman who lives and shoots true. It is a picture of the big snows wonderfully filmed, with an excellent cast headed by William Dunham, George Holt and Nell Shipman, and directed by the masterly producer, Rollin S. Sturgeon.

"God's Country and the Woman" is conceded to be the best picture the Vitaphone company ever made. It is in eight parts and there is not a dull moment in the picture. James Oliver Curwood's thrilling story is undoubtedly the biggest picture attraction offered in Portsmouth this year.

FACTS ABOUT THE $1,000,000
FOX-BRENON-KELLERMANN PICTURE

The backer with courage enough to spend $1,000,000 on a single motion picture—William Fox.

The master director who produced the first $1,000,000 motion picture—Herbert Brenon.

The star of the greatest motion picture spectacle ever seen—Annette Kellermann, the world's greatest woman swimmer.

Picture was made on an island fortress—Old Ft. Augusta, near Kingston, Jamaica.

This ancient fortress, long disused, was a swamp which was drained and cleared by sanitary and other engineers and a concrete and steel city built.

Every adjunct of a municipality was supplied, including hospitals, police, courts, etc., etc.

Within a few days a city of more than 20,000 employees grew where a few hours earlier there had been nothing but tropical undergrowth.

Largest number of persons used in a single scene of the picture, 12,744 people.

Number of children in Gnome City scenes of the picture, 1,200.

Time required for filming of this wonderful spectacle, one month less than a year.

Number of feet of film taken, 223,000 feet.

Number of feet shown in picture, 10,000 feet.

All scenes photographed by not less than two cameras, some by as many as seven.

Magnificent "White City" built at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, destroyed by fire to make a scene for the spectacle.

FEATURE ATTRACTION

Paul J. Rainey's African hunt pictures in six reels will be at the Temple next Tuesday and at the Exhibit next Wednesday. A lecture is given with the picture. A $250,000 production. Educational, exciting and interesting showing wild animal life as it really exists.

A RARE TREAT

"Tommy wanted to go to the movies, but his mother objected. 'Aw, you never let me go to place,' he whimpered.

"Why, Tommy," exclaimed his mother, "what shocking bad grammar you use! Can't you speak more correctly?"

"Sure I can," said the boy, "if you'll give me a chance. You ought to hear me say: 'Yes, mother, you let me go wherever I want to.'"

Movie misfits: Derby hats!

IN SCREENLAND

A NITA STEWART of the Vitaphone company blew into the world on the 17th of February, 1895, choosing Brooklyn, New York, as her birthplace. There she received her education, and started on a musical career, her instructor being Mrs. Mary Gunning, mother and teacher of Louise Gunning of nightingale fame. While attending High School Miss Stewart's beauty was noticed by an artist who employed her as a model. Later others did the same, and many a calendar has been allowed a prominent place in homes the country over because of the unusual beauty of the model—Miss Stewart. Miss Stewart is the sister-in-law of Ralph Ince, the Vitaphone director and actor, and it was through him that she went into pictures. She's a versatile young person and does comedy and tragedy equally well. Those who witnessed her remarkable performance in "A Million Bids" have hard work to believe that tragic young creature was the slangy, gum-chewing stenographer of "Why I Am Here." Miss Stewart is slender, has dark hair and eyes, and tips the scales only moderately. She is not married.

The program at the popular Lyric next week offers an outlay of good picture—exceptionally good pictures—the kind that are too good to miss so just fall in line any night and enjoy a real feature picture and some excellent music. Davidson's trio promises you some music next week that will make you forget it is summertime.

Monday "The Perils of Divorce" in five acts, a World film masterpiece, featuring Edna Wallace Hopper and Frank Sheridan, two powerful dramatic stars in a stirring arraignment of the present day evil.

Tuesday Marguerite Clark in "Silks and Satins" a beautiful romantic play that will make you love dainty Marguerite a thousand times more.

Wednesday brings the greatest picture of the year—the wonderful eight reel Vitaphone production of James Oliver Curwood's thrilling story, "God's Country and the Woman"—absolutely the most interesting picture it has ever been our good fortune to offer. Come in the afternoon if you can.

Thursday brings glorious Billie Burke and an added feature that will be advertised later.

Friday's Paramount is something else you cannot afford to miss. "Destiny's Toy" introducing the celebrated Louise Huff in her first motion picture.

Saturday brings another of those good World Film features, "Sally in Our Alley," with Carole Blackwell and Muriel Oakridge. "Every day a masterpiece" has a meaning at the Lyric and—always good music.

J. WARREN KERRIGAN IN "THE GAY LORD WARING"

Don't Miss This at the Columbia Tonight

J. Warren Kerrigan, moving picture favorite of theatre-going millions, has joined Bluebird Photoplays and will appear at the Columbia tonight in the stirring romantic drama "The Gay Lord Waring." There is a thrill almost every moment in the five acts, the complications of intrigue and collusion—all for the possession of elusive dollars—keeps the spectator tensely interested. Mr. Kerrigan has the support of a capable company of Bluebird artists including Lois Wilson, Bertman Grassby, Maude George and Duke

Worne in working out the intensely engaging situations to a happy and logical conclusion.

Southern beauty, sifted down to a nicety, is exemplified in Lois Wilson, leading lady for J. Warren Kerrigan, who will be seen in "The Gay Lord Waring." When the Universal people held their nation-wide contest for the prettiest girl in each state, and sent them all on a pleasure junket to the San Francisco Exposition, Miss Wilson was the Alabama representative, chosen by popular vote from a host of beauty representing every county in the state.

COMING TO EXHIBIT

"My Partner," a five part Mutual Masterpicture featuring Burr Melintosh, is taken from a play that ran for sometime on the road.

"My Partner" comes on next Saturday. "The Net" is the M. M. for Saturday, August 19th in which Ethel Jewett plays the lead. A sea coast drama.

FLASHES

Billie Burke adores apples. In fact she enjoys fruit of any kind, but apples are her favorites and it is a common sight to behold her nibbling a rosy-checked apple.

The first news from the mountains of "A Thousand Pines," where Vivian Martin is starring in her initial Morosco-Paramount subject, "Neil of Thunder Mountain," is that Miss Martin's auto was the Jonah car and had a record of eleven punctures and assorted breakdowns every few miles.

Marie Doro, the Lasky-Paramount artist, will begin rehearsals on a new play written especially, "The Kid." It will be produced under the direction of William C. De Mille. Miss Doro will be supported by some of the leading members of the Lasky all star organization.

Kathlyn Williams received through the mail the other day two beautiful silver spoons, on the handle of one of which was engraved "The Spoilers," and on the other, "The Ne'er Do Well." The surprising part was that no request of any kind accompanied the gift.

One thing is certain—conversational powers in Movieland are not essential.

The plan to put soda water fountains in movie theatres may prove a fizzle.

Talk about realism in motion pictures! In one of the scenes of "The Child That Found Its Father" Fritz Brunette was called upon to do some cooking, and the pepper she used so lavishly was decidedly not "prop" pepper. A short general recess was called while the whole company sneezed.

The canning season in the movies is never over.

Emmaline Phillips and Dorothy Jean Finch in an apple-peeling contest conducted by the Junior league, each peeled an apple in thirty seconds—was intended for an appealing movie scene.

Lillian Hayward wears in a number of her scenes in "The Child That Found Its Father" a beautiful Irish point lace gown, made by her own hands. It required about six months to complete the tedious work.

BLUEBIRD RELEASES

Bluebird Photoplays, Inc., made the announcement that "L'Abbe Constantine," introducing Rupert Julian: "The Beckoning Trail," with J. Warren Kerrigan and Lois Wilson; "Wanted A Home," with Mary MacLaren, the leading player, and "Little Eve Edgerton," presenting Herbert Rawlinson and Ella Hall, will be among the early showings in the popular Bluebird series.

A "GOLD" LIMP

Director Frank Borzage was recently back in the Santa Ynez mountains, taking some scenes for "The Courtin'" of "Calliope Clev." Upon returning to the studio, his mount developed a limp as an investigation of the horse's hoof brought forth a gold nugget, about the size of a pecan.

Tumbling over a dam and shooting a rapids gave Lillian Drew, Esq., a leading woman, her most thrilling experience in pictures recently when she performed the stunt at Starved Rock, Ill. It worked out far more thrilling than the picture required, which pleased everyone except Miss Drew. She admitted that she was a frightened young woman during the experience and that swimming between rocks and rapids is a sport she does not care to adopt.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF OHIO

At the General State Primary, Tuesday, August 8th

In addition to other nominations for public offices, will be named the Republican choice for

UNITED STATES SENATOR

It is essential, if our party is to succeed to a full and complete national victory in November, that Ohio chooses a Republican Senator. To do this we should nominate our strongest and most popular candidate.

HARRY M. DAUGHERTY

Is urged up on your thoughtful consideration because of his Proven Republicanism—his Fitness and Ability.

- He represents no class or clique.
- He is supported by known Republicans and former Progressives, and not by outsiders or mischief-makers.
- He stands for the interests of all.
- His plain creed embraces alike the best interests of labor and capital, the merchant and the farmer.
- He never ran away from a party fight and he has the courage to say where and for what he stands.
- He regards a commission from the people as a sacred public trust.
- He is deserving at the hands of the party for long, faithful unremitting and unrewarded labors in the past.

Respectfully submitted by

The H. M. Daugherty Club of Franklin County, Ohio.

Fighting Progressives Endorse Harry M. Daugherty

Hon. Harry M. Daugherty, Cleveland, O., July 21, 1916.

Dear Sir: I admire a man who has the courage of his convictions. One who will put up a fight for the thing he thinks is right, whether such a fight is politically expedient or not.

In 1912 there were two camps of men unafraid. You belonged to one and I to the other. All of us who followed the Progressive banner knew exactly where you stood. You were out in the open fighting your level best for the political course you thought was right. You were not one of the fellows who were trying to carry water on both shoulders, nor one of the kind who was a Progressive one minute and a Standpatter the next.

In this year of 1916 when we Progressives, who are as anxious for the election of Hughes and the Republican ticket, as any Republican can be, must vote for a standpatter for United States Senator, I, for one am for the candidate who can be elected when nominated, who will strengthen rather than weaken the ticket, who was out in the open in 1912, and who will be the winner in 1916. That's you. I am going to vote for you, and I believe the large majority of the Progressives of Cuyahoga County are going to do likewise.

Wishing you the full measure of success, I am,
(Signed) GUY O. FARQUHARSON,
Chairman Cuyahoga County Progressive Executive Committee.

Dayton, Ohio, January 28, 1916.

Hon. William E. Halley, 401 Wyandotte Bldg., Columbus, Ohio.

My Dear Mr. Halley: I have your letter of recent date with reference to the candidacy of Hon. H. M. Daugherty for United States Senator from Ohio, and in reply I wish to say that I am very strongly in favor of Mr. Daugherty and shall be glad to render such assistance as I can, to help bring about his election.

I have known Mr. Daugherty for many years. We have always been personal friends and this has remained true even though in 1912, we differed from each other on questions of party policy. I know, as everyone must recognize, that Mr. Daugherty has been a consistent, hard-working Republican all of his life. He has never hesitated to get into the thick of the fray for others and it seems to me, that his splendid service in the past, certainly entitles him to some consideration at this time. He is a man of unquestioned ability, and large experience. His intimate knowledge of public men and affairs, will be of great value to the country and cannot help but redound to the credit of the Republican party. Mr. Daugherty has always been a friend of the young men in the party and in my opinion, his broadmindedness after the campaign in 1912, has had much to do with the uniting of the various elements of the Republican party under one banner, in this state.

The Southern and Central part of the state in which he lives, it seems to me, is entitled at this time to a representative in the Senate. He would make a splendid teammate for our present distinguished Senator Hon. Warren G. Harding, and in my judgment, will, if elected, soon take rank with the leaders in the upper branch of Congress.

I shall be glad to have you advise me of any service which I can render in his behalf.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) ROBERT B. NEVIN.

Athens, Ohio, March 16, 1916.

Hon. H. M. Daugherty, Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Sir: It is my sincere desire that you be elected Senator. I trust I may be able to render some assistance to your candidacy. My experience, four years ago, convinced me that you do your fighting in the open, in a fair manner, and not at one's back. The fact that in a very humble manner, I was then opposing your efforts, did not detract from my appreciation of the manner in which you prosecuted the fight for the Republican ticket. Your fight was made in the way which counts for any ticket, and that should be one of your real assets.

Having concluded to support the Republican ticket, permit me to take this means of assuring you that it is my earnest hope that success may attend your candidacy in the primaries and the general election.

Yours truly,
(Signed) I. M. FOSTER.

Senator Harding's Indorsement

In a speech at the Buckeye Republican Club Banquet at Columbus, Saturday night, May the 6th, Senator Warren G. Harding among other things said:

"I know you will all envy me the privilege I may have to be in the United States Senate to welcome two such distinguished gentlemen to the Republican side as your fellow townsman Harry M. Daugherty and James Watson of Indiana. Of course, I am neutral, but it can be no impropriety to say that I have been associated with Mr. Daugherty in times of great stress in the Republican Party and know his worth; and in view of the splendid service he has rendered it would be a fitting recognition of his sterling Republicanism and great service, if the Republicans of Ohio would send him to the United States Senate."

Editorial from Cincinnati Times Star, Tuesday, March 7, 1916

NOT A GOOD ARGUMENT

Ex-Governor Herrick is a candidate for the senate. We understand that one of his campaign letters includes this rather remarkable argument for his success at the primaries:

"I have gone into this campaign in response to what seemed to be a general desire on the part of the people of Ohio, expressed to me from all quarters. MOREOVER, IT SEEMED TO ME THAT AS I WAS NOT IDENTIFIED WITH THE PARTY TROUBLES OF 1912, MY CANDIDACY MIGHT BE OF SOME EFFECT IN RECONCILING THE FACTIONS OF THE PARTY."

This argument puts emphasis on the weakest point in the Herrick candidacy. If followed to its logical conclusion, it would mean that only men who fail to take a positive stand at critical times in the Nation's history are worthy to be entrusted with office after quiet is restored. Such a rule would scarcely tend to encourage fearlessness and independence of action on the part of our public men.

The country passed through one of the greatest political crises of its history in 1912. No one was in doubt where Mr. Daugherty stood at that time. But that is an argument for Mr. Daugherty's selection, not his defeat, at the August primary.

Asks Police's Permission, Then Uses Brick On Rudy Kountz

New Boston Turnkey Thinks Stranger Is Joking; He Is Fooled

"Say, can I tear up things in this town?" queried a man as he stepped into the police station at New Boston last night about 10:30.

"Go to it, old chap," said Frank White, chief of the village, and turnkey at the station at night.

White thought the stranger was "kidding" him, but he proved he was a "man of his word" a few minutes later when he committed a dastardly assault on Rudy Kountz, aged 56 years, proprietor of the Rudolph Hotel at New Boston.

Kountz was just preparing to close his bar when the man, who is said to be a structural iron worker named Schmidts, whom Mr. Kountz had ejected from his hotel earlier in the evening for misconduct appeared in the room without warning hurled a big paving brick at the hotelkeeper.

The brick struck Kountz in the face, knocking him to the floor senseless and fracturing his nose. His eye glasses were doubled up but strangely the lenses were not broken.

Assault Makes Escape

Kountz's assailant ran from the room, past a crowd of twenty or twenty-five men standing on the corner, none of whom attempted to intercept him, went down Gallia to Ohio avenue to the Griffin home, where he had roomed, and, gathering up his suit case, escaped in the direction of the river.

Dr. C. H. Dawson was called to attend Mr. Kountz, who was assisted to his room. Dr. Harry Schirrmann was also called and it became necessary to remove some of the bones of the nose, which had become splintered. It was also feared for a time that Mr. Kountz's skull was fractured but the physicians later satisfied themselves that it had not been.

ton. White Thought It Was a Joke

White says he was standing in the doorway of the mayor's office when Schmidts appeared, carrying a club across his shoulder. He said the man asked him if he cared if he would "tear up" New Boston. White said he noticed he had been drinking and not caring to be bothered with him told him that he did not care and for him to go ahead and tear up the town.

White said the man started ahead but that he beat him to the hotel bar room. Mr. Kountz had just locked his rear door and was coming through the room to lock the front door. White said he just got through warning Kountz of the man's coming when Schmidts appeared in the front door with a brick in one hand and a club in the other. White said Schmidts threw the brick right over his head and it struck Kountz. It was thought that Schmidts would seek to avenge himself upon the bartender but he aimed the brick at the hotel keeper instead. He escaped before White could get him.

Used Auto In Chase

White said that he and some other men leaped into an automobile and started in pursuit of Schmidts, going as far as East Portsmouth without finding any trace of him.

Schmidts is described as a smooth-faced, dark complexioned, low, heavy-set man, about 24 years of age. He wore a light shirt, brown soft hat, dark trousers and black shoes.

TWO MEN KILLED BY C. & O. TRAIN

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 5.—Two young men, unidentified, met their death yesterday afternoon at about 2 o'clock, just west of the Guyandotte bridge, on the Chesapeake & Ohio line, when they stepped in front of the eastbound passenger train No. 8, after dodging from the track on which No. 85, the manifest freight to Cincinnati, was speeding. It is believed from a memorandum book found in the pocket of one of the men that they were brothers, named Joel and Oscar Branchland, of Branchland, W. Va.

According to authentic stories of the tragedy, the men were walking along the track on which the freight train was coming west, and that they did not hear the whistle of the passenger train going east. The men were hurled about twenty feet in air, and when examination was made of the crushed bodies it was discovered that every bone in the body of one man had been broken and the other was nearly as badly crushed. Horrible gashes were inflicted on the head and face of both. One man's skull was nearly sundered. Trainmaster Green, with Superintendent Hook, of the Chesapeake & Ohio local officer, went at once to the scene of the accident. They stated last night that from all appearances the men were trespassers on the grounds.

The book found in the pocket of one of the victims contained an apparently unfinished letter to a young lady, which read:

"Dear Girl—I will write you a friendly line."

The letter was written on one of the leaves of the small book, and was addressed to a Miss Tishie Pitts, with the residence evidently Branchland.

Another feature of the clue that is hoped to lead to the positive identification is the address of a man named D. C. Dingus, of Martin, Kentucky, for whom it seems that the men had worked a few days ago. At another place in the book the imprint of a rubber stamp, that of the First National Bank, of Prestonsburg, Ky., was to be seen, counter-signed, in the same impression, by Samuel D. Osborne.

A postal card addressed to Joel Branchland, of Branchland, was found grimey with dirt, in one of the men's pockets. The card was dated, by the government stamp, June 15, 1915, and sent from Garrett, the signature of the state being obliterated.

MR. JOSEPH T. TRACY
 The primary election next Tuesday, aside from all other considerations, should be of special moment to our Republican friends from the fact that for the first time in many years a Scioto county Republican is a candidate for an important state office. We allude to the Hon. Joseph T. Tracy, who aspires to the nomination for state auditor. Mr. Tracy is a Scioto county man. He was born in this county, grew up here, spent practically all of his life here. His record as a man is that of an honorable, upright, successful citizen. He has held offices of trust and responsibility, and also at the head of the state bureau of accounting, of the auditor's office. In all positions he has rendered good service, has made an efficient and an accommodating official.

Mr. Tracy is the kind of a man whom his party associates can support, and feel that they are doing the right thing. They have no apology to make for his candidacy, and it seems to us that Scioto county Republicans should give this Scioto county candidate a record vote next Tuesday. They should send him off in his race with practically an unanimous endorsement from his home town and his home county.

Republican voters should not forget Mr. Joseph T. Tracy for state auditor when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

LET US DO OUR PART
 As is familiar to most readers an organization exists for the single purpose of making the cross-the-state road that runs from Portsmouth to Sandusky, one of the great highways of the country, and to be popularly known as the Scioto-Harrison trail. This organization has set aside Thursday, August 24th, as a "Good Roads Day" to be specially devoted to the improvement of the trail, by individual and volunteer efforts and subscriptions. The plan is that those interested in the trail, more especially those residing along it, shall turn out with team, pick, shovel and ax, and give one day's work to its betterment, also marking it with designated color signs, so that those traveling it may easily keep its course.

It so happens that Scioto county has the best section within her borders and a general single day's effort will put that in fine condition. There are quite a number of chuck holes to be filled, drains to be cleared and intruding grass to be cut, but this is about all that will require personal attention. This little, however, is more than worth the while and occupying the enviable position she already does in regard to the trail, it is to be hoped that Scioto county will maintain it by joining in the movement with enthusiasm and doing a part that will show the other counties she is at no time lagging in this supreme matter of good roads. Few counties have equalled her in the acquirement of real good roads, not fair weather roads, roads that are pleasant enough, but under a bit of time and wear pass away to leave a condition at least seemingly worse than ever existed, but roads that are good every season, serve this generation and the next and those yet to come with a cost of up-keep so insignificant that it is not to be reckoned.

The trouble too often with the man who aims high is that he uses blank cartridges, is the way a cynic diagnoses some failures.

The best proof that the redoubtable Colonel imposed Hughes on the Republican party is he approves of nothing that he does not start himself.

It may have been good politics to have kept him away from the front of the stage in that information party, but we'll wager the Colonel was not party to the arrangement.

Those papers that have been heaving and panting with loudations of General Funston will now proceed to haul in their horns. He says they have sent down to his army, in the shape of special correspondents, the most inveterate and pestilential lot of common liars ever aggregated and he is going to drum them out of camp. The General isn't wise evidently, to the fact that these correspondents are down on the border, not for war, but for political purposes.

It is a fair prospect, that so long as Woodrow Wilson is president these United States will never be sent to war to protect dubious ownership in oil wells, or help some one extend his cattle ranches.

Censuring the act of another a man said: "He takes to that sort of stuff as naturally as a hog does to his wallow." But it wasn't a good simile. The hog doesn't take naturally to his wallow. It is only after he is civilized, gets acquainted with germs and contracts trichinosis that a hog takes to wallowing in mud, and he does that to cool off the heat created by the germinating germs.

That fellow Carranza is certainly learning diplomacy, if not sense. He had the stars and stripes flown over the Mexican state palace on July 4th, and now he is sending a request that United States troops be kept in Mexico until next October.

Candidate Hughes must believe the third time is the charm. For the third time he says he is trying to live down the reputation of being cold and exclusive. May be he would be more accurate if he said he was trying to talk it down.

ANOTHER POPULAR "KORN KARNIVAL"

COULD LESSEN THE TASKS

In a Virginia city, about the size of Portsmouth, in answer to newspaper complaint that the public park was not kept as tidy as it should be, one of the keepers wrote that while he and his co-laborers worked diligently for twelve hours a day they were not always able to clear away the accumulating rubbish, because instead of receiving aid from the public it seemed there was a disposition to add to their tasks and make slovenliness prevail. People came into the park to picnic and instead of gathering up their boxes and paper plates into a heap and wrapping them up in a paper they scattered them about as rubbish; men brought their papers to read and tossed them aside unfolded to be tossed and torn by the winds. All of this means for disorder and more work, makes what ought to be a reasonably easy task, an endless one, and at times an impossibility. We can appreciate, we can even sympathize with this zealous, overburdened and overwrought public servant from experience. Daily we listen to the wailings of the postoffice janitor, whose special duty it is to keep the lobby and flower beds in order. Admittedly he is the best in the business and he is diligent itself and like the priceless housekeeper, can see dirt where there isn't any; really, he is so tireless that his unceasing activity often makes us tired for him. Day after day, as the end comes, and he is worn out from picking up torn pieces of envelopes, wrappers and strings thrown on the floor and in the cuspidors, instead of the waste baskets, and gathering up tobacco teds, stumps of cigars, bits of paper and divers things tossed on the lawns, he wonders how some people are raised at home and what sort of hog pens they live in. That is drawing it a trifle strong, may be, but from the way he keeps busy it is evident enough that his "some people" are both totally indifferent to the trouble they cause others and their purpose and effort to make public places presentable and pleasant.

Somebody sends us a pamphlet on "Natal Day—the Wonder Crop of the World—There is Money in it for You." Imagine our disgust, when reading it in eager anticipation of finding in it something that would enable every farmer in Scioto county to buy a motor six, we wound up with the discovery that the stuff wouldn't grow north of Florida. Was it sent us for a joke, or what?

The Portsmouth, N. H., Times says David Lloyd George has settled the Irish problem. Yes, he has, by unsettling it more than it ever was before.

Chickens do come home to roost. The G. O. P. through many a campaign was vociferous in the claim that prosperity was a matter of the sole and exclusive designing of the administration in power. It "dashed" so much as sheep that now, and the land fairly overflowing with prosperity.

Henry Ford was proposed for four separate and distinct presidential nominations and didn't get a single one. Neither did he want any, but at that his cut in the price of "Henrys" makes him the most popular un-nominated candidate there ever was.

Everyday Wisdom

By DON HEROLD

CINDER IN THE EYE

Sometimes it is said of a man that his perspective on a proposition is all wrong. This is very true of a man with a cinder in his eye. He is too close. His perspective is all distorted. He thinks it is important. Think of the dirt that was taken out of the Panama Canal! When you get a cinder in your eye, think of a wagon load of coal. Try a lot of little tricks on yourself and attempt to get the normal, general attitude on coal, cinders, dirt and debris. Do not allow yourself to exaggerate the importance and significance of a cinder just because it is yours. True, possession is nine points of the law, but that is no excuse for conceit about your cinder. Before you became the owner of a cinder, you probably passed wagonloads of them on the street and never looked up, or maybe you merely looked up and said, "There goes a wagon load of cinders," and, with that, dismissed the subject entirely from your mind—quite a much more normal point of view. Cinders are all right, in quantities, and in certain gross uses, such as filling a hole in a street, but they are no rare jewel to be raved about just because you happen to be wearing one in your own eye. Few, most people are on their feet, almost sentimental in fact. There is a meanness about a cinder, that makes it commonplace. Think of the solar system, if one had that in his eye, he might go about with pride. A cinder is so small, have and harbor one if you will, but in secrecy, in quietness, in modesty. Don't bore your friends about it, much as it may become a hobby with you.

Slippy Attic-Mouse

ALL THE TIME that Tommy Tittle was enjoying life in the pretty back garden where he made his home, his cousin Slippy Attic-Mouse lived on contentedly in the roomy big attic. Perhaps you remember that it was Slippy in the first place who suggested to Tommy that he move to the garden. Poor little half-starved Tommy would never in the world have thought of leaving the dark cellar where he had always lived but for Slippy's urging. Slippy insisted that Tommy move to some place where food could be found, and as Tommy was too much of a coward (at that time) to risk living in the big, open attic, the garden was the only place to go.

Many a time, when he thought of what a fortunate move he had made, Tommy had thought gratefully of Slippy and had wished he might see him and thank him for the good advice. But he never really expected to see him, for he hardly thought Slippy would come to the garden and he knew for certain that he would never go to the attic.

One morning, just after Tommy and his little mate had finished tidying their house, Tommy remarked, "I think I'll start out this morning. I've been here and out the front door all the time lately. Perhaps I'm missing something at the other end of the log—no telling."

Mrs. Tommy stopped brushing the floor with her tail and looked thoughtfully at Tommy. "I never thought of that!" she exclaimed. "And I haven't cleaned that back with a will, oh, for days! To tell the truth, I had been so busy I had forgotten all about it! Let's go and see about it right away." You see, a frightened little squeak on the Mrs. Tommy, like any other good housewife, didn't like to think that she had forgotten any part of her duty and she wanted to hurry and make sure that no harm had been done by her forgetfulness.

Quick as a flash, she whisked the dirt she had swept up into a neat little pile.

"Come quickly and help me, Tommy!" she called. "Some rubbish has been shoved up here and running in and out the front door all the time lately. I'm ashamed of myself!"

"Now, now, now!" comforted Mrs. Tommy, "don't get excited! It's the floor with her tail and looked thoughtfully at Tommy. "I never thought of that!" she exclaimed. "And I haven't cleaned that back with a will, oh, for days! To tell the truth, I had been so busy I had forgotten all about it! Let's go and see about it right away." You see, a frightened little squeak on the Mrs. Tommy, like any other good housewife, didn't like to think that she had forgotten any part of her duty and she wanted to hurry and make sure that no harm had been done by her forgetfulness.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY
 O. O. MCINTYRE

New York, Aug. 5.—Mr. Charles E. Hughes, who is "their apparent" (joke) by many to the throne in Washington—that is, they believe he will win by a hair, has his headquarters in the northeast corner of the Hotel Astor.

Directly opposite his window is the office of Leo Edwards, who ekes out a limousine life dashing off popular ditties. The other day G. S. Kaufman, the boulevardier, was in Edwards' office. Across the way Mr. Hughes was chatting with some friends. Perhaps history was being made. Who can tell?

Kaufman, who is one of our best little notifiers, espied him. He is forever seeing things that no one else sees. For instance he saw a newsstand dealer so enrapt in a copy of "Hamlet" that he missed a sale.

Well, anyway, he drew Edwards' attention to Mr. Hughes, who did not know before he had such a distinguished neighbor. Edwards walked over to his piano and began playing the popular refrain: "We Take Our Hats Off to You, Mr. Wilson."

Mr. Hughes waved a salute. Now Edwards and Kaufman are wondering if he knew the tune.

And then there was a click of horses' feet on the gravel, and the Colonel, big as life, swept into view. Both drew up, thinking we were visitors. My friend apologized for our curiosity, but both assured us we were welcome.

Out on the lawn Mrs. Derby, the former Ethel Roosevelt, was playing with a beautiful baby. As we started to go, one of the most polite negroes we ever saw, asked us if we would mind waiting until the Roosevelt reached the bottom of the hill. We did—and then the car stalled and it was necessary to send for a mechanic in Oyster Bay to get us off Sagamore Hill. Probably punishment for butting in.

A young Chinaman has just been graduated from Columbia. He is quite pleased with the strides the Chinese are making in America. Recently Chun Dick, a young New York Chinaman, served on a jury in one of the courts. It is the first time on record anywhere that a Chinaman has served on a jury in the United States. He was, however, born in the United States and was an American citizen.

Two theatrical men, whose hostile attitude toward each other is one of the traditions of Broadway, met at Times Square recently. One of them had an afternoon paper spread out, while he eagerly scanned a big scare head which said: "Sharks Infest Entire Coast." The other glanced at the paper as he went by and declared, over his shoulder: "Just my luck. You don't go swimming."

A big black cat strolled out on Broadway the other afternoon and went to sleep in the middle of the street. It remained there for a half hour and was none the worse for wear.

 We find them most wonderfully charming.

 Let's bow to what still is in store,
 No cure has been found for styleitis;

14,000 TURKS LAUNCH DRIVE ON BRITISH NEAR PORT SAID

RUSSIANS ADMIT GERMANS GAIN NEAR KOVEL

(BULLETIN)

London, August 5.—British positions near Romani, east of Port Said, are being attacked by 14,000 Turks, according to an official statement issued by the war office. The Turks are attacking along a front of seven to eight miles, the statement says, and have so far been repulsed.

The text of the British official announcement says: "The following report timed 11:10 p. m. on the fourth of August has been received from the general office commanding in chief in Egypt:

"Since midnight of August 4-4 Turks whose strength is estimated at 14,000, have been attacking our position near Romani, east of Port Said, on a front of seven to eight miles.

"The position at dusk on the fourth of August was that their attacks had made no impression on our fortified position while on the southern flank the fighting was also going in our favor and between 400 and 500 prisoners had been captured there.

"Ships of the royal navy rendered valuable service from the Bay of Tinn.

"Fighting was still in progress when this report was dispatched. The temperature during the day reached 100 degrees in the shade.

An official statement issued by the Turkish war office on Friday stated that Turkish airmen had attacked with machine guns, British positions about 25 miles east of the Suez canal.

Romani is a village near the coast of the Mediterranean about 22 miles to the east of the Suez canal. It is about 10 miles northwest of Katia, where several engagements recently have been fought between the British and the Turks.

(BULLETIN)

Paris, August 5.—All German attacks on the French positions last night were repulsed, says the French official statement issued this afternoon, the Germans sustaining heavy losses.

A bombardment of the most violent character took place over the entire sector of Thiaumont and Fleury. The battle lasted from 9 o'clock last night until this morning, the Germans making unsuccessful efforts, the statement adds, to drive the French from Thiaumont works.

Petrograd, August 5.—(Via London).—Under the pressure of repeated German counter attacks against the village of Rudka-Miryanskaya, on the Stovok nineteen miles from Kovel, the Russians have evacuated the village and retired several hundred yards to the east, says the official statement given out by the war office last night.

South of Brody, General Sakharoff's troops have captured 1,300 prisoners.

Paris, Aug. 5.—The French troops in the region of Verdun twice during Friday captured the Thiaumont work from the Germans. (Continued on Page Four)

NEW YORK IN GRIP OF STREET CAR STRIKE ON SURFACE LINES; 2 MILLION PATRONS AFFECTED

ARRESTING CAR STRIKE SYMPATHIZERS

New York, August 5.—Strikes were in effect today on virtually every surface car line in the boroughs of Manhattan, Queens and the Bronx, involving 6,600 conductors and motormen and affecting 2,300,000 persons who daily use these lines. The test to determine whether the organization of employees recently formed could paralyze the street car traffic of the city began early today when the first of the works sought transportation from their homes to their offices.

Indications at 7:30 a. m. were that all the surface car lines in Manhattan, the Bronx and Queens were nearly tied up. A few cars, guarded by policemen, were moved.

The labor leaders asserted that 80 percent of the employees of the New York Railways company which operates the majority of the surface lines in Manhattan had voted to strike.

The elevated and subway lines which were not affected by the strike vote, were thronged with persons who were unable to use the surface lines. Threats have been made that the strike eventually would be extended to those systems.

Many Prepare For The Strike Preparations were made by many of the largest financial and business institutions in the lower part of the city to convey their employees from their homes to their offices and stores in automobiles and omnibuses and many of the employees occupied rooms for the night near subway or elevated lines in order to reach their work on time.

The strike to force a demand for recognition of the union and an increase in wages began to take effect on the main lines of the New York Railways company as early as 10 o'clock last night when the first meeting of motormen and conductors voted to quit work.

Two hundred employees of the surface lines in Queens borough voted to quit early today. The Brooklyn lines are not involved.

Disorders Occurred Some minor disorders attended the declaration of the strike in Manhattan and a few arrests were made of strikers who attempted to interfere with the operation of cars. So far as known no one was injured during the night.

The officials of the New York Railways company asserted that only a small percentage of their employees had voted to quit work and sought the protection of the police for the others. The officials said that 90 percent of the men were willing to work and that with police protection the surface car lines could be operated. The police commissioner promised to put a policeman on every car.

Philadelphia, Aug. 5.—Members of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America were today waiting for a reply from the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company to the demand of the association for an increase in wages and better working conditions.

The demand was sent to President Thomas A. Mitten of the Transit company yesterday. Leaders of the Amalgamated Association said they would call a strike of motormen and conductors in the event the company ignored its demands.

DETROIT BANDITS MADE GOOD THEIR ESCAPE WITH CASH

MAYOR DRIVEN INTO HIS HOME WITH BRICKBATS

La Salle, Ill., Aug. 5.—The authorities today are considering a second appeal to Governor Dunne for state troops to preserve order among the workers in the cement mills in this country who have been on strike for several weeks.

Several hundred strikers attacked a squad of special deputies late yesterday and precipitated a fight in which a number of shots were fired. Two of the deputies were wounded and several of the strikers were hit. Later, it was said, the strikers drove Mayor Archie Morrison of Oglesby, to his home with brick bats. He barricaded himself in his home until the trouble subsided.

Detroit, Aug. 5.—Search was being vigorously prosecuted early today in every county surrounding Detroit for the five automobile bandits, who, armed with rifles and automatic pistols, yesterday held up the motor pay car of the Burroughs Adding Machine company and made off with between $33,000 and $34,000 after shooting and slightly wounding one man.

The robbery which occurred within a block of the Burroughs plant, is declared to have been the most daring in the history of Detroit. It was accomplished so quickly that almost before any one but the occupants of the pay car, a number of guards in a car following and the bandits themselves, realized what was happening, the robbers had transferred five cash bags to their own machine and were out of sight. Hundreds of persons who saw the hold up smiled in the belief that they were witnessing the scenario of a photo play.

One of the robbers is said to have lost his hat and revolver both of which are now in the possession of the police. Nine automobiles filled with Detroit policemen and two loaded with deputy sheriffs in command of Sheriff Oakman, of this county, took up the chase a short time after the holdup. At latest all were scouring the surrounding country except three or four officers who returned about midnight and reported they could go no further in the search.

FEAR CHILD PLAGUE IN PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 5.—Stringent measures were taken today to prevent infantile paralysis from becoming an epidemic in this state. State and city officials were prepared to rigidly enforce the quarantine against children under 16 years entering the state from New York or New Jersey.

The railroads have been asked to discontinue the sale of return tickets for children under 16 to any of the infested points in New York and New Jersey and the sale of excursion tickets for children to any point in the two states was ordered stopped. One death and six new cases of the disease were reported in the city for the 24 hour period ending last midnight. This makes a total of ten deaths and sixty cases since July 1.

Railroads Show Increase

Washington, D. C., August 5.—Net revenues of 93 large railroads of the United States for the year ending with June, showed an increase over the same period of 1915 of almost $190,000,000. The figures made public today by the Interstate Commerce Commission showed operating revenues for 1916 of $1,855,904,227, an increase of about $290,000,000 over the previous year.

REIGN OF TERROR WAS PLANNED IN SAN FRANCISCO, CLAIMED

San Francisco, August 5.—That Thomas J. Mooney, one of the men indicted for murder in connection with the preparedness parade bomb explosion on July 22, planned to inaugurate a reign of terror in San Francisco by importing "direct action" Reds from other cities, was the declaration of District Attorney C. M. Fickert in making public today some of the correspondence discovered by the police in Mooney's desk.

Mooney kept carbon copies of his letters. One addressed to an executive officer named Ackler, of the International Organization of the Industrial Workers of the World, Chicago, said: "I want to get in immediate touch with fifteen or twenty direct action Reds—good, vigorous Reds."

All Of Champs Go Higher

It is something very unusual for all the players of any one team to head berths in higher class leagues and draw a bigger salary when the season is over. This is the case with the Portsmouth 1916 Ohio State League. Every player of the 1916 Portsmouth team is playing in a league of higher classification than the Ohio State and this is drawing more salary than they received here. Through the efforts of Will Felder, president of the local club every player has been placed with a good team and reports from the players say they are making good and expect to stick. Below is given a list of the players and the clubs with whom they are now playing:

Dillhoefer, catcher, Milwaukee.
Jacobus, pitcher, Galveston.
Reeb, pitcher, Milwaukee.
Ferguson, pitcher, Rocky Mount, Virginia.
Tast, pitcher, Rochester, N. Y.
Demos, shortstop, Fall River.
Spencer, first base, manager, Springfield, O.
Bush, second base, Dallas.

Fisher, center field, Owensboro, Kentucky.
Singlet, catcher, Raleigh, West Virginia.
Dills, right field, Dallas.
Sabankus, pitcher, Kingston, West Virginia.
King, Owensboro, Ky.
Dallas and Galveston are in the Texas league; Owensboro and Dawson Springs, in the Kitty league; Rocky Mount in the Virginia league and Rochester in the International league.

Emmer Is Making Good

The Cincinnati Enquirer of Friday carried a splendid picture of Emmer, who is being used at the shortstop position by Manager Mathewson. Emmer was with Portsmouth in the Ohio State league. He has been fielding in grand style for the Rhinelanders. His showing at the bat is improving steadily and with his batting average picking up the youngster looks to be fixture in the Red lineup.

This season Fielder Jones is with the St. Louis Browns. The Browns were until they awoke suddenly and started a winning streak which now makes them serious pennant contenders. A Mighty Smoker.
Emile Augier, the dramatist, was incidentally addicted to tobacco. When he was writing "Le Gendre de M. Poirier" he used every morning on sitting down to work to fill twelve pipes, and he always continued smoking until he had smoked them all. At the end of the eighth pipe his mouth was so inflamed that every puff was painful, but it was then his practice to smear his tongue with butter so as to be able to smoke on to the bitter end. It is not surprising in the circumstances that his doctor warned him that unless he gave up smoking he would die of alcohol poisoning within twelve months. He did give it up, but his life was shortened by his habit.

MR. JOSEPH T. TRACY

The primary election next Tuesday, aside from all other considerations, should be of special moment to our Republican friends from the fact that for the first time in many years a Scioto county Republican is a candidate for an important state office. We allude to the Hon. Joseph T. Tracy, who aspires to the nomination for state auditor. Mr. Tracy is a Scioto county man. He was born in this county, grew up here, spent practically all of his life here. His record as a man is that of an honorable, upright, successful citizen. He has held offices of trust and responsibility, having been deputy county clerk and county auditor locally, and also at the head of the state bureau of accounting, of the auditor's office. In all positions he has rendered good service, has made an efficient and an accommodating official.

Mr. Tracy is the kind of a man whom his party associates can support, and feel that they are doing the right thing. They have no apology to make for his candidacy, and it seems to us that Scioto county Republicans should give this Scioto county candidate a record vote next Tuesday. They should send him off in his race with practically an unanimous endorsement from his home town and his home county.

Republican voters should not forget Mr. Joseph T. Tracy for state auditor when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

LET US DO OUR PART

As is familiar to most readers an organization exists for the single purpose of making the cross-the-state road that runs from Portsmouth to Sandusky one of the great highways of the country, and to be popularly known as the Scioto-Harrison trail. This organization has set aside Thursday, August 24th, as a "Good Roads Day" to be specially devoted to the improvement of the trail, by individual and volunteer efforts and subscriptions. The plan is that those interested in the trail, more especially those residing along it, shall turn out with team, pick, shovel and scythe and give one day's work to its betterment, also marking it with designated color signs, so that those traveling it may easily keep its course.

It so happens that Scioto county has the best section within her borders and a general single day's effort will put that in fine condition. There are quite a number of chuck holes to be filled, drains to be cleared and intruding grass to be cut, but this is about all that will require personal attention. This little, however, is more than worth the while and occupying the enviable position she already does in regard to the trail, it is to be hoped that Scioto county will maintain it by joining in the movement with enthusiasm and doing a part that will show the other counties she is at no time laggard in this supreme matter of good roads. Few counties have equalled her in the acquirement of real good roads, not fair weather roads, roads that are pleasant enough, but under a bit of time and wear pass away to leave a condition at least seemingly worse than ever existed, but roads that are good every season, serve this generation and the next and those yet to come with a cost of up-keep so insignificant that it is not to be reckoned.

The trouble too often with the man who aims high is that he uses blank cartridges, is the way a cynic diagnoses some failures.

The best proof that the redoubtable Colonel imposed Hughes on the Republican party is he approves of nothing that he does not start himself.

It may have been good politics to have kept him away from the front of the stage in that information party, but we'll wager the Colonel was not party to the arrangement.

Those papers that have been heaving and panting with laudations of General Funston will now proceed to haul in their horns. He says they have sent down to his army, in the shape of special correspondents, the most inveterate and pestilential lot of common liars ever aggregated and he is going to drum them out of camp. The General isn't wise evidently, to the fact that these correspondents are down on the border, not for war, but for political purposes.

It is a fair prospect, that so long as Woodrow Wilson is president these United States will never be sent to war to protect dubious ownership in oil wells, or help some one extend his cattle ranches.

Censuring the act of another a man said: "He takes to that sort of stuff as naturally as a hog does to his wallow." But it wasn't a good simile. The hog doesn't take naturally to his wallow. It is only after he is civilized, gets acquainted with germs and contracts trichinella that a hog takes to wallowing in mud, and he does that to cool off the heat created by the germinating germs.

That fellow Carranza is certainly learning diplomacy, if not sense. He had the stars and stripes flown over the Mexican state palace on July 4th, and now he is sending a request that United States troops be kept in Mexico until next October.

Candidate Hughes must believe the third time is the charm. For the third time he says he is trying to live down the reputation of being cold and exclusive. May he be would be more accurate if he said he was trying to talk it down.

ANOTHER POPULAR "KORN KARNIVAL"

COULD LESSEN THE TASKS

In a Virginia city, about the size of Portsmouth, in answer to newspaper complaint that the public park was not kept as tidy as it should be, one of the keepers wrote that while he and his co-laborers worked diligently for twelve hours a day they were not always able to clear away the accumulating rubbish, because instead of receiving aid from the public it seemed there was a disposition to add to their tasks and make slovenliness prevail. People came into the park to picnic and instead of gathering up their boxes and paper plates into a heap and wrapping them up in a paper they scattered them about as rubbish; men brought their papers to read and tossed them aside unfolded to be tossed and torn by the winds. All of this means for disorder and more work, makes what ought to be a reasonably easy task, an endless one, and at times an impossibility. We can appreciate, we can even sympathize with this zealous, overburdened and overwrought public servant from experience. Daily we listen to the wailings of the postoffice janitor, whose special duty it is to keep the lobby and flower beds in order. Admittedly he is the best in the business and he is diligent and like the priceless housekeeper, can see dirt where there isn't any; really, he is so tireless that his unceasing activity often makes us tired for him. Day after day, as the end comes, and he is worn out from picking up torn pieces of envelopes, wrappers and strings thrown on the floor and in the cuspidors, instead of the waste baskets, and gathering up tobacco ends, stumps of cigars, bits of paper and divers things tossed on the lawns, he wonders how some people are raised at home and what sort of hog pens they live in. That is drawing it a trifle strong, may be, but from the way he keeps busy it is evident enough that his "some people" are both totally indifferent to the trouble they cause others and their purpose and effort to make public places presentable and pleasant.

Somebody sends us a pamphlet on "Natal Hay—the Wonder Crop of the World—There is Money in it for You." Imagine our disgust, when reading it in eager anticipation of finding in it something that would enable every farmer in Scioto county to buy a motor six, we wound up with the discovery that the stuff wouldn't grow north of Florida. Was it sent us for a joke, or what?

The Portsmouth, N. H., Times says David Lloyd George has settled the Irish problem. Yes, he has, by unsettling it more than it ever was before.

Chickens do come home to roost. The G. O. P. through many a campaign was vociferous in the claim that prosperity was a matter of the sole and exclusive designing of the administration in power. It "doesn't" so much as cheap that now, and the land fairly overflowing with prosperity.

Henry Ford was proposed for four separate and distinct presidential nominations and didn't get a single one. Neither did he want any, but at that his cut in the price of "Henrys" makes him the most popular un-nominated candidate there ever was.

Everyday Wisdom

I WANT TO TELL YOU ABOUT MY CINDER

CINDER IN THE EYE
Sometimes it is said of a man that his perspective on a proposition is all wrong. This is very true of a man with a cinder in his eye. He is too close. His perspective is all distorted. He thinks it is important. Think of the dirt that was taken out of the Panama Canal! When you get a cinder in your eye, think of a wagon load of coal. Try a lot of little tricks on yourself and attempt to get the normal, general attitude on coal, cinders, dirt and debris. Do not allow yourself to exaggerate the importance and significance of a cinder just because it is yours. True, possession is nine points of the law, but that is no excuse for conceit about your cinder. Before you become the owner of a cinder, you probably passed wagon loads of them on the street and never looked up, or maybe you merely looked up and said, "There goes a wagon load of cinders," and, with that, dismissed the subject entirely from your mind—quite a much more normal point of view. Cinders are all right, in quantities, and in certain gross uses, such as filling a hole in a street, but they are no rare jewel to be raved about just because you happen to be wearing one in your own eye. Yes, most people are entirely too emotional about their cinders, almost sentimental in fact. There is a meanness about a cinder that makes it commonplace. Think of the solar system, if one had that in his eye, he might go about in secrecy, in quietness, in modesty. Don't bore your friends about it, much as it may become a hobby with you.

Bed Time Tales

Slippy Attie-Mouse

ALL THE TIME that Tommy Tittlemouse was enjoying life in the little pile and pushed it to one side till she should have more time; his home, his cousin Slippy Attie-Mouse lived on contentedly in the roomy big attic. Perhaps you remember that it was Slippy in the first place who suggested to Tommy that he move to the garden! Poor little half-starved Tommy would never in the world have thought of leaving the dark cellar where he had always lived but for Slippy's urging. Slippy insisted that Tommy move to some place where food could be found, and as Tommy was too much of a coward (at that time) to risk living in the big, open attic, the garden was the only place to go.

Many a time, when he thought of what a fortunate move he had made, Tommy had thought gratefully of Slippy and had wished he might see him and thank him for the good advice. But he never really expected to see him, for he hardly thought Slippy would come to the garden and he knew for certain that he would never go to the attic.

One morning, just after Tommy and his little mate had finished tidying their house, Tommy remarked, "I think I'll start out the back way this morning. I've been running in and out the front door all the time lately. Perhaps I'm missing something at the other end of the log—no telling."

Mrs. Tommy stopped brushing the floor with her tail and looked thoughtfully at Tommy. "I never about that!" she exclaimed. "And I haven't cleaned that back hall, oh, for days! To tell the truth, I had been so busy I had forgotten all about it! Let's go and see about it right away." You see, a frightened little squeak on the Mrs. Tommy, like any other good housewife, didn't like to think that she had forgotten any part of her duty and she wanted to hurry and make sure that no harm had been done by her forgetfulness.

Quick as a flash, she whisked the Attie-Mouse!

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O-O-M'INTYRE.

New York, Aug. 5.—Mr. Charles E. Hughes, who is "their apparent" (joke) by many to the throne in Washington that in, they believe he will win by a hair, has his headquarters in the northeast corner of the Hotel Astor.

Directly opposite his window is the office of Leo Edwards, who ekes out a limousine life dashing off popular ditties. The other day G. S. Kaufman, the boulevardier, was in Edwards' office. Across the way Mr. Hughes was chatting with some friends. Perhaps history was being made. Who can tell?

Kaufman, who is one of our best little noticers, espied him. He is forever seeing things that no one else sees. For instance he saw a newstand dealer so entranced in a copy of "Hamlet" that he missed a sale.

Well, anyway, he drew Edwards' attention to Mr. Hughes, who did not know before he had such a distinguished neighbor. Edwards walked over to his piano and began playing the popular refrain: "We Take Our Hats Off to You, Mr. Wilson."

Mr. Hughes waved a salute. Now Edwards and Kaufman are wondering if he knew the tune.

I was motoring again this week with My Friend Who Owns a Car. He took me on my first trip to Oyster Bay. We inquired of a blacksmith in the village where Col. Roosevelt lived. The smithy was not quite sure, but thought it was three miles out.

Motor cycle cops directed us. The car turned in one entrance and on a little rock was chiseled out "Sagamore Hill." Two gardeners at work looked at us suspiciously and I saw the sign, "No Trespassing—Private Grounds."

Finally we grew up our courage and inquired if we might drive up the winding roadway to peep at the Roosevelt home. They assured us that it would be all right. We had just turned a road that gave us a full view of the home, when we saw Mrs. Roosevelt in riding habit coming out the drive.

Decision Withheld In Paving Suit; Interesting Testimony Is Submitted

Judge Will P. Stephenson, West Union, stated Saturday morning that he would be unable to review today the evidence adduced in the injunction suit brought against the Board of Control and the S. Monroe and Sons Co. by James and Edward Kelley and Jay Thompson, to restrain them from improving Linden avenue by paving.

"There are several close points in the case," said Judge Stephenson. "I will probably forward a decision about the middle of next week."

The arguments were completed Friday afternoon late and the case was submitted to Judge Stephenson.

Mayor Not Unfriendly To Contractors or Brick Men

Just before leaving the stand Mayor Kaps yesterday was asked the following questions:

"You have nothing personal against Kelley Bros., have you?"

"I have always been on good terms with all of the Kelley Bros. up until June 30th."

"Ever have any dealings with them?"

"I have had dealings with Kelley Brothers and in fact with nearly all of the contractors. I have done work for them and they have for me, loaned and borrowed tools, material, etc."

"Has not the Peebles Paving Brick Company treated you right?"

"They certainly have. I have bought brick from them, in fact only a few days ago purchased a large quantity from them for the new Hill top church."

"Portsmouth Block?"

"Was Stumbling Point"

Upon reconvening Friday afternoon, Attorney Will J. Meyer, representing the plaintiffs, introduced as evidence, the original abstract of the bidding sheet for awarding the contract for paving Linden avenue and several contracts purported to have been awarded to Monroe and Sons, Kelley Brothers and Kaps Brothers wherein the type of brick was not specified. The defense objected to the contracts claiming that they could produce a similar number that had been awarded to all three contractors wherein the brands had been named. The objection was overruled and the taking of testimony resumed.

"What were your reasons," asked Attorney Meyer, when Service Director Ralph Calvert took the stand, "for awarding Monroe and Sons Company the contract as the lowest and best bidder?"

"Well, for one thing they specified certain kind of brick and the property owners on Linden avenue were anxious to get the street paved before winter."

"Were there any other reasons?"

"Well it seems as if the opinion of the Board of Control was for a repress brick with tar filler."

"This contract was the first paving contract you folks had let, wasn't it?"

"Yes, sir."

"Now, Mr. Calvert, you said at the board meeting that you were going to see Kelley Brothers and see if they would get Portsmouth Block. What was your purpose?"

"Well to see whether they could get the brick in time so it would not interfere with the work."

"Now, it all comes down to using Portsmouth Block, doesn't it?"

"Well, we know the Portsmouth Block is good."

"Why did you insist upon this particular brick?"

"Because we were informed that there were plenty of brick on hand."

"Who informed you?"

"I knew it. That knowledge came to me in various ways."

"Did you, at that time, make inquiries about the Union Block on hand, or the South Webster block or the Peebles block?"

"No, sir."

"Where did you get the idea that tar was the best filler to be used?"

"Well the city has several streets paved with tar filler."

"You thought if Kelley Bros. used Portsmouth Block, you would give them the contract?"

"We gave Kelley Brothers the first consideration as they were the lowest bidders."

Mr. Clinkenbeard Explains Decision

E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, director of public safety, was the next witness called to the stand.

"What were your reasons, Mr."

Clinkenbeard," asked Attorney Meyer after qualifying the witness, "for calling the S. Monroe and Sons Company the lowest and best bidders?"

"I will say again as in my deposition, that I got my impression, which was the better in a conversation with the city engineer. He said the wire cut-lug brick, which was a good one, was not adapted to tar filler and that repressed brick was adapted and for this reason, I voted for the repressed brick with tar filler."

"Were there any other Portsmouth firms at the time in a condition to furnish repressed brick?" questioned Attorney Meyer on cross examination.

"At a meeting called previous to the meeting of the board at which the contract was awarded, this was all threshed out and it was understood from the information that the other brick concerns could not take care of the order."

"They wouldn't have to go out of the city to get the brick would they?" asked Attorney Meyer.

"Unless they bought Portsmouth repressed brick, they would."

"What investigations did you make to see that the report was true?"

"No more than if I had come to you for the information. My regard for your veracity is sufficient."

Had Plenty of Union Block

C. W. Turner, proprietor of the Seioville Brick company, manufacturer of the Union Block, testified that his concern had 450,000 first class brick on hand about the time the contract was awarded and several hundred thousand others in the kiln.

"How many brick are used in a square yard?"

"About forty."

"Then in 1805 square yards, how many brick would be required?"

"About 72,000."

"Has your brick ever been used in paving streets in Portsmouth?"

"Oh, yes, for the last twenty years off and on."

"Did they come up to Portsmouth specifications?"

"Yes, sir, the first street we put down was Market street."

"How many brick did you say you had on hand about this time?" asked Attorney Skelton on cross examination.

"About 450,000."

"What grade were they?"

"Number one."

Says Mayor Put Ban On Peebles Brick

"I will ask you," questioned Attorney Meyer, when Carl Schneider took the stand, "whether you ever had a conversation with Mayor Kaps in which reference was made to Kelley Brothers or the Peebles Brick company?"

"Yes, sir."

"Till the court where?"

"At the Red Cross drug store."

"What time of the year was this? What season?"

"It was right after the election about ten o'clock one night."

"State to the court what this conversation was."

Attorneys for the defense objected to this, claiming that it was an attempt to show fraud on the part of the mayor when it was not specifically set forth in the petition. Judge Stephenson granted the attorneys for the plaintiffs the right to amend their petition and allowed the question to be answered.

"Well he says that Kelley Brothers had pulled it over on other administrations and he went to New Boston and pulled it over on that administration and that the Peebles company would put no brick in Portsmouth if he had anything to do with it."

"Did he make any reference to any other administrations?"

"Yes, to Erick's, Tynes' and Searey's."

"There wasn't the best of feeling between you and Mayor Kaps then were there?" asked Attorney Skelton on cross examination.

"I don't know."

"Isn't it a fact that Kaps had called you to account for a statement you had made against him?"

"When?"

"Isn't it a fact that Kaps discharged you at Oak Hill?"

"No, sir, he didn't."

"There was the best of feeling between you then?"

"Well I was a McCormick man in the primary and Kaps got a little offended at that."

"Why you have expressed your ill will against him to me."

"I don't recall it. I have said that Kaps had it in for me."

"Who was present at the Red Cross drug store when this conversation took place?"

"I don't remember."

"Now, how do you happen to recall the conversation?"

"Because it was in my line of business."

"Do you suppose that Mr. Kaps would tell you such things when he knew you were working for Kelley Brothers?"

"I suppose he told me that for my benefit and wanted Kelley Brothers to know about it. And I told Mr. Kelley the next day."

"Why is it you remember the conversation but do not remember who was about?"

"Never thought it was important or I would have put it down in a memorandum. I didn't think it would come to nothing."

William Tipton testified that he was employed by the Curtis-Shumway company but had been in the employ of Kaps Brothers for several years.

Wm. Tipton Testifies

"I will ask you," questioned Attorney Meyer, "whether you at any time ever had a conversation with Mr. Kaps in which he said anything about Kelley Brothers or the Peebles Brick company?"

"I heard him say just at election time that Kelley Brothers would have to do the work down here like he had to do it under other administrations. Never heard him say anything about Peebles."

"Didn't you tell me the other night that Kaps told you that Kelley Brothers were not going to get any more wire cut lug brick in Portsmouth if you could help it?"

"No, sir."

At the close of Tipton's testimony, Attorney Meyer stated that they rested and introduced a copy of the Daily Times containing an article relative to the awarding of the contract, as evidence.

E. K. S. Clinkenbeard, safety director, was the first witness called by the defense.

Says Mayor Did Not Exert Influence

"I will ask you if any pressure was brought to bear by any statement made by Mayor H. H. Kaps that would tend to influence you in the award of the contract to Kelley Brothers?" asked Attorney Skelton.

"He did not."

"Did you ever hear him make any statements implying malice against Kelley Brothers?"

"It was not until the day after the contract was awarded."

"Were there any malicious statements made outside against Kelley Brothers?"

"No, sir. Nothing that could be construed as malice."

"Were there any statements made that would imply malice against the Peebles company?"

"No, sir."

"You said that nothing was said that could be construed as malice. What do you mean?"

Told Me He Had A 'He-Back'

"I have only to say that after I met you and Mr. Kelley the morning of the awarding of the contract, he told me he had a what he called a 'he-back' with him, and said he had a run in with Kelley."

"At the time of the letting of the contract," Ralph Calvert was asked by Attorney Skelton, "did Mayor Kaps make any statements that would imply malice toward Kelley Brothers?"

"The only thing that Mr. Kaps said was that wire cut lug brick were good enough but were not adapted to tar filler."

Samuel Harper was next called. "State the substance of the conversation with the things expressed to Clinkenbeard on being questioned."

Tells About Conversation

"I recollect Mr. Clinkenbeard stopped me, rather I met him in front of the city building and he told me that the contract was to be awarded that morning and asked me what sort of streets were the best. I told him that repressed brick with tar filler made the most satisfactory streets."

TWO MEN KILLED BY C. & O. TRAIN

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 5.—Two young men, unidentified, met their death yesterday afternoon at about 2 o'clock, just west of the Guyan-dotte bridge, on the Chesapeake & Ohio line, when they stepped in front of the eastbound passenger train No. 8, after dodging from the track on which No. 95, the manifest freight to Cincinnati, was speeding. It is believed from a memorandum book found in the pocket of one of the men that they were brothers, named Joel and Oscar Branham, of Branchland, W. Va.

According to authentic stories of the tragedy, the men were walking along the track on which the freight train was coming west, and that they did not hear the whistle of the passenger train going east. The men were hurled about twenty feet in air, and when examination was made of the crushed bodies it was discovered that every bone in the body of one man had been broken and the other was nearly as badly crushed. Horrible gashes were inflicted on the head and face of both. One man's skull was nearly smothered.

Trainmaster Green, with Superintendent Hoek, of the Chesapeake & Ohio local officer, went at once to the scene of the accident. They stated last night that from all appearances the men were trespassers on the grounds.

The book found in the pocket of one of the victims contained an apparently unfinished letter to a young lady, which read:

"Dear Girl—I will write you a friendly line—"

The letter was written on one of the leaves of the small book and was addressed to a Miss Tishie Pitts, with the residence evidently Branchland.

Another feature of the clue that is hoped to lead to the positive identification is the address of a man named D. C. Dingus, of Martin, Kentucky, for whom it seems that the men had worked a few days ago. At another place in the book the imprint of a rubber stamp, that of the First National Bank of Prestonsburg, Ky., was to be seen, counter-signed, in the same impression, by Samuel D. Osborne.

A postal card addressed to Joel Branham, of Branchland, was found grimy with dirt, in one of the men's pockets. The card was dated, by the government stamp, June 15, 1915, and sent from Garrett, the signature of the state being obliterated.

New Boston Turnkey Thinks Stranger Is Joking; He Is Fooled

"Say, can I tear up things in this town?" queried a man as he stepped into the police station at New Boston last night about 10:30.

"Go to it, old chap," said Frank White, fire chief of the village, and turnkey at the station at night.

White thought the stranger was "kidding" him, but he proved he was a "man of his word" a few minutes later when he committed a dastardly assault on Rudy Kountz, aged 56 years, proprietor of the Rudolph Hotel at New Boston.

Kountz was just preparing to close his bar when the man, who is said to be a structural iron worker named Schimidtas, whom Mr. Kountz had ejected from his hotel earlier in the evening for misconduct appeared in the room without warning hurled a big paving brick at the hotelkeeper.

The brick struck Kountz in the face, knocking him to the floor senseless and fracturing his nose. His eye glasses were doubled up but strangely the lenses were not broken.

Assailant Makes Escape

Kountz's assailant ran from the room, past a crowd of twenty or twenty-five men standing on the corner, none of whom attempted to intercept him, went down Galloway to Ohio avenue to the Griffin home, where he had roomed, and gathering up his suit case, escaped in the direction of the river.

Dr. C. H. Dawson was called to attend Mr. Kountz, who was assisted to his room. Dr. Harry Schirrman was also called and it became necessary to remove some of the bones of the nose, which had become splintered. It was also feared for a time that Mr. Kountz's skull was fractured but the physicians later satisfied themselves that it had not been.

Two of his teeth were knocked out.

Mr. Kountz spent a very restless night and was still in a serious condition Saturday morning.

Brick User Still At Large

The New Boston authorities and Portsmouth police made an all night search for Schimidtas but without success. The report was heard that he had boarded a Sciotoville car, totting a gun in one hand and suit case in the other as he approached the waiting station. He is said to have boasted in talking with another passenger that he had "fixed" the hotelkeeper.

Schimidtas had been employed with the Pittsburgh Construction company's force engaged on the new addition at the Whitaker-Glessner company's plant. For several days past he had been eating his meals at the Rudolph hotel.

Had Teased The Girls

At supper Friday evening he was taken to task by Mr. Kountz for persisting in teasing some of the dining room girls. When he came out into the office he began amusing himself by kicking another boarder's hat over the floor.

Mr. Kountz again reprimanded him and after an exchange of warm words Mr. Kountz ordered him from the place. Schimidtas later claimed that as he was leaving the hotel Bartender Walter Stockham struck him. Schimidtas came into the hotel bar about ten o'clock and accused Stockham of having struck him earlier in the evening. Seeing the fellow was bent on trouble Stockham and a couple of men ejected him through the side door. It was then Schimidtas went to the mayor's office and made the novel request that he be permitted to "tear up" New Boston.

White Thought It Was A Joke

White says he was standing in the doorway of the mayor's office when Schimidtas appeared, carrying a club across his shoulder. He said the man asked him if he cared if he would "tear up" New Boston. White said he noticed he had been drinking and not caring to be bothered with him told him that he did not care and for him to go ahead and tear up the town.

White said the man started ahead but that he beat him to the hotel bar room. Mr. Kountz had just locked his rear door and was coming through the room to lock the front door. White said he just got through warning Kountz of the man's coming when Schimidtas appeared in the front door with a brick in one hand and a club in the other. White said Schimidtas threw the brick right over his head and it struck Kountz. It was thought that Schimidtas would seek to avenge himself upon the bartender but he aimed the brick at the hotel keeper instead. He escaped before White could get him.

Used Auto In Chase

White said that he and some other men leaped into an automobile and started in pursuit of Schimidtas, going as far as East Portsmouth without finding any trace of him.

Schimidtas is described as a smooth-faced, dark complexioned, low, heavy-set man, about 24 years of age. He wore a light shirt, brown soft hat, dark trousers and black shoes.

mans, holding it the last time in the face of counter-attacks, according to the French official statement last night.

Paris, Aug. 5.—After having captured and then evacuated the village of Fleury the French troops Friday afternoon in a bayonet attack recaptured the greater part of the village, says the French official statement issued last night.

London, August 5.—Verdun, almost quiescent during the Anglo-French offensive in the Somme region, has again become the storm center on the western battle front. The French forces have taken the offensive on the right bank of the Meuse and now hold the Thiaumont work and the greater part of the village of Fleury, according to Paris.

The Thiaumont work, already the scene of many desperate combats, was twice in French hands during 12 hours on Friday. The forces of the German crown prince fought tenaciously, driving the French from the work once, but losing it again. German counter attacks were of no avail, says Paris, and the work remained in the possession of the French.

French Take Fleury

Fleury, which changed hands Thursday after the French had succeeded in taking it, is again almost entirely occupied by the French. Fierce fighting still continues in and around the village. German unwounded prisoners taken in the Verdun fighting number 400.

On the Somme front, in Northern France, there has been little infantry activity, both the British and French communications failing to report on the part of their armies. London says the Germans bombarded the section southwest of Pozieres and also the southern portion of the Metz wood.

Desperate counter attacks by the Germans in the region of the Stokhod river, east of Kovel, have resulted in the retirement of the Russian forces which had seized the village of Rudka-Miravskai.

The fact that the village is only 19 miles from Verval, the Russian objective on this part of the Belyanin front, probably accounts for the intensity of the fighting there.

Russians Advancing

The Russian General Sakharoff's troops continue to advance south of Brody and toward Lemberg. Petrograd reports the capture of 1,300 Austro-Germans in the "hot attack" on the line of the Sereth and Graberki rivers. A squadron of British naval aeroplanes has attacked with bombs German military establishments in the vicinity of Ghent, Belgium. The British war office says considerable damage was done by the dropping of two tons of bombs. Unofficial reports received in Amsterdam apparently confirm this claim.

Horseshoe Pitchers, Get Busy

Ever get out behind the barn and hurl horseshoes at a peg? And did you ever enjoy the chagrin of your competitor when you made a "ringer" at a critical point in the game? There is going to be one of the good old-fashioned horseshoe pitching contests given at the Lucasville Fair this year, and prizes are to be awarded to the winner.

The winner will be declared champion of Scioto county and he is then eligible for the state championship contest to be held at Columbus the latter part of August. Prizes amounting to $250 are to be awarded in the state contest.

The rules and regulations governing this contest are set forth in a bulletin issued by the State Fair managers, as follows:

The standard distance shall be 48½ feet between the pegs.

The pitcher's box shall extend three feet on either side and to the rear of the peg and four feet in front of the peg.

The pegs are to be of steel one inch in diameter and driven perpendicular, extending six inches above the ground.

The shoes to be used must not exceed 7½ inches in length or 7 inches in width. No toe or heel calks shall be over one half inch in length. No opening between the heel calks shall exceed three inches, inside measurement. No shoe shall exceed 2 pounds and 4 ounces in weight.

White said that he and some other men leaped into an automobile and started in pursuit of Schimidtas, going as far as East Portsmouth without finding any trace of him.

Schimidtas is described as a smooth-faced, dark complexioned, low, heavy-set man, about 24 years of age. He wore a light shirt, brown soft hat, dark trousers and black shoes.
